Preindustrial City Past Present:

Urban Geography Michael Pacione, 2009 This is the most comprehensive and readable book on urban geography in the array of contemporary literature on the subject      The Routledge Handbook of the History of Moscow Christopher J. Ward, 2026-01-28 This timely handbook of recent scholarship on Moscow moves beyond today's headlines to present a broad spectrum of methodological and historiographic perspectives on the city's historical and contemporary significance In the over 30 years since the dissolution of the Soviet Union the history of Moscow has been explored through focused approaches including academic and architectural histories guidebooks fiction and other texts However the broader history of Moscow as a whole has been a secondary consideration and the lack of a unified body of academic works is profound The Routledge Handbook of the History of Moscow redresses this deficiency by placing the city within its deserved longue dur e context It is particularly notable in that it includes chapters from historians who continue to work within the Russian Federation despite personal risk scholars in the Russian diaspora and Russian studies specialists from Europe Canada and the United States Through this variety of lenses readers will be provided with an understanding of Moscow's prominent role on the world stage both past and present The Routledge Handbook of the History of Moscow will be useful for university faculty seeking a non textbook option for their undergraduate and graduate courses in Russian Soviet and post Soviet studies      Urban Geography Tim Hall, Heather Barrett, 2012-03-12 This extensively revised and updated fourth edition not only examines the new geographical patterns forming within and between cities but also investigates the way geographers have sought to make sense of this urban transformation It is structured into three sections contexts themes and issues that move students from a foundation in urban geography through its major themes to contemporary and pressing issues The text critically synthesizes key literatures in the following areas the urban world changing approaches to urban geography urban form and structure economy and the city urban politics planning regeneration and urban policy cities and culture architecture and urban landscapes images of the city experiencing the city housing and residential segregation transport and mobility in cities sustainability and the city The fourth edition combines the topicality and accessibility of previous editions with extensive new material including many new chapters such as the urban world and politics housing and Residential Segregation and transport in cities as well as a wealth of international case studies extending its range of coverage across the field This book features enhanced pedagogy including a range of new illustrations and tables a list of key ideas for each chapter end of chapter essay questions and project activities and annotated further reading from books journals and websites Written in an engaging student friendly style this is an essential read for students and scholars of Urban Geography      Quantitative Studies of the Renaissance Florentine Economy and Society Richard T. Lindholm, 2017-01-02 Quantitative Studies of the Renaissance Florentine Economy and Society is a collection of nine quantitative studies probing aspects of Renaissance Florentine economy and society The collection organized by topic source material and analysis methods discusses risk and return specifically the population's responses to the plague and also the measurement of interest rates. The work analyzes the population's wealth distribution, the impact of taxes and subsidies on art and architecture, the level of neighborhood segregation and the accumulation of wealth. Additionally, this study assesses the competitiveness of Florentine markets and the level of monopoly power, the nature of women's work and the impact of business risk on the organization of industrial production.

Die Urbanisierung Europas von der Antike bis in die Moderne Gerhard Fouquet, Gabriel Zeilinger, 2009. Die zunehmende Verstärkung des lange Zeit lediglich geprägten Europas veränderte nachhaltig das Siedlungsbild des Kontinents. In diesem Band, der aus den Beiträgen der gleichnamigen Ringvorlesung des Kieler Historischen Seminars im Wintersemester 2007/08 hervorgeht, befassen sich Historiker, Archäologen und Geographen mit den verschiedenen Stationen der Urbanisierung Europas von der Antike bis in die Moderne. Dabei werden auch die Folgen der Urbanisierung für die Sozial- und Politikgeschichte der westlichen Welt thematisiert.

Urban Social Geography Paul Knox, Steven Pinch, 2014-09-15. The 6th edition of this highly respected text builds upon the successful structure, engaging writing style and clear presentation of previous editions. Examining urban social geography from a theoretical and historical perspective, it also explores how it has developed into the modern day. Taking account of recent critical work whilst simultaneously presenting well-established approaches to the subject, it ensures students are well informed about all the issues. The result is a topical book that is clear and accessible for students.

Women in Africa Nancy Hafkin, Edna G. Bay, 1976-06-01. This collection of papers, all but one previously unpublished, presents the results of recent field research in the disciplines of history, political science, anthropology, sociology and economics. The chief emphasis here is on change in viewing African women as agents of change from the first arrival of Europeans to the present and on seeking to change the perspective from which African women have been studied in the past. The papers encompass settings as diverse as eighteenth-century Senegal and contemporary Mozambique. Politically and socially too, the local settings are various, including an Igbo village, the marketplaces of Abidjan and Accra, a development scheme in rural Tanzania, the churches of Freetown and the streets of Mombasa. The contributors are Iris Berger, James L. Brain, George E. Brooks Jr., Margaret Jean Hay, Barbara C. Lewis, Leith Mullings, Kamene Okonjo, Claire Robertson, Filomina Chioma Steady, Margaret Strobel and Judith VanAllen.
