Second Language Writers Text Linguistic And Rhetorical Features:

Second Language Writers' Text Eli Hinkel, 2002-01-01 This comprehensive and detailed analysis of second language writers text identifies explicitly and quantifiably where their text differs from that of native speakers of English The book is based on the results of a large scale study of university level native speaker and non native speaker essays written in response to six prompts Specifically the research investigates the frequencies of uses of 68 linguistic syntactic and lexical and rhetorical features in essays written by advanced non native speakers compared with those in the essays of native speakers enrolled in first year composition courses The selection of features for inclusion in this analysis is based on their textual functions and meanings as identified in earlier research on English language grammar and lexis Such analysis is valuable because it can inform the teaching of grammar and lexis as well as discourse and serve as a basis for second language curriculum and course design and provide valuable insight for second language pedagogical applications of the study s findings Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics ,2005-11-24 The first edition of ELL 1993 Ron Asher Editor was hailed as the field s standard reference work for a generation Now the all new second edition matches ELL s comprehensiveness and high quality expanded for a new generation while being the first encyclopedia to really exploit the multimedia potential of linguistics The most authoritative up to date comprehensive and international reference source in its field An entirely new work with new editors new authors new topics and newly commissioned articles with a handful of classic articles The first Encyclopedia to exploit the multimedia potential of linguistics through the online edition Ground breaking and International in scope and approach Alphabetically arranged with extensive cross referencing Available in print and online priced separately The online version will include updates as subjects develop ELL2 includes c 7 500 000 words c 11 000 pages c 3 000 articles c 1 500 figures 130 halftones and 150 colour Supplementary audio video and text files online c 3 500 glossary definitions c 39 000 references Extensive list of commonly used abbreviations List of languages of the world including information on no of speakers language family etc Approximately 700 biographical entries now includes contemporary linguists 200 language maps in print and online Also available online via ScienceDirect featuring extensive browsing searching and internal cross referencing between articles in the work plus dynamic linking to journal articles and abstract databases making navigation flexible and easy For more information pricing options and availability visit www.info sciencedirect.com The first Encyclopedia to exploit the multimedia potential of linguistics Ground breaking in scope wider than any predecessor An invaluable resource for researchers academics students and professionals in the fields of linguistics anthropology education psychology language acquisition language pathology cognitive science sociology the law the media medicine computer science The most authoritative up to date comprehensive and international reference source in its field

Exploring the Cross-Language Transfer of L1 Rhetorical Knowledge in L2 Writing Xing Wei, 2023-12-02 This book addresses the transfer of rhetorical knowledge from a first language L1 to a second language L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer a common cognitive phenomenon in the L2 writing of students in foreign language learning environments. It investigates L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer from a cognitive perspective and examines a specific component of L2 writers' agency in this transfer, namely metacognition. The book's ultimate goal is to enhance our understanding of the cognitive mechanism of rhetorical transfer across languages. This goal is in turn connected to the need to determine how L1 rhetorical knowledge can be steered and oriented toward successful L2 writing. To this end, this book proposes a theoretical framework for transfer studies encompassing the dimensions of text transfer agency and L2 essay raters. It facilitates an in-depth exploration of the intricacies involved in L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer. It then presents empirical studies on this transfer. Embracing a dynamic perspective, this book furthers our understanding of interlingual rhetorical transfer as a conscious or intuitive process for making meaning, one that can be monitored and steered. Moreover, it discusses the pedagogical implications for L2 writing instruction that guides students to use metacognition to transfer L1 rhetorical knowledge during L2 writing.

The Routledge Handbook of English for Academic Purposes Ken Hyland, Philip Shaw, 2016-01-29. The Routledge Handbook of English for Academic Purposes provides an accessible, authoritative and comprehensive introduction to English for Academic Purposes (EAP), covering the main theories, concepts, contexts and applications of this fast-growing area of applied linguistics. Forty-four chapters are organised into eight sections covering: Conceptions of EAP; Contexts for EAP; EAP and language skills; Research perspectives; Pedagogic genres; Research genres; Pedagogic contexts; Managing learning. Authored by specialists from around the world, each chapter focuses on a different area of EAP and provides a state-of-the-art review of the key ideas and concepts. Illustrative case studies are included wherever possible, setting out in an accessible way the pitfalls, challenges and opportunities of research or practice in that area. Suggestions for further reading are included with each chapter. The Routledge Handbook of English for Academic Purposes is an essential reference for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students of EAP within English Applied Linguistics and TESOL.

Developing Multilingual Writing Hiroe Kobayashi, Carol Rinnert, 2023-02-14. With millions of people becoming multilingual writers in the globalized digital world, this book helps to empower writers to connect with their readers and project their identities effectively across languages, social contexts and genres. In a series of closely related studies that build on each other, we look comprehensively at how writers develop their ability to construct meaning for different audiences in multiple languages. This book, which draws on various approaches including a social view of writing, multicompetence, adaptive transfer, complex systems theory, motivation and translanguaging, contributes to ongoing efforts to integrate differing approaches to multilingual writing research. This book focusses on how writer agency, control over text construction, audience awareness, ability to meet expectations of prospective readers and writer identity projection of image of the writer in the text progress as multilingual writers gain more experience across languages. The within-writer cross-sectional text analysis in Chapters 2-5 examines 185 essays written in Japanese and English by eight groups of writers from novice to advanced. N 103 is supplemented by insights from these writers' reflections.

We explore how they employ three kinds of text features discourse types metadiscourse and self representation which relate to their developing agency audience and writer identity in their text construction and propose a new model for writer voice construction based on those features The four case studies Chapters 6 9 focus on five university students and six professionals to examine closely how individual writers agency audience and identity are interrelated in their text construction in two or three languages and diverse genres including academic and creative writing The combined studies provide new insights into multilingual writing development by revealing the close interrelationship among these three principal aspects of writing across languages They also demonstrate the writers multi directional use of dynamic transfer reuse and reshaping for L1 L2 and L3 text construction and the use of mixed languages L1 L2 or L1 L3 translanguaging for composing processes in addition to the creative power of multilingual writers One significant contribution of this book is to provide models of innovative ways to analyze text and new directions for writing research that go beyond complexity accuracy and fluency Categories and detailed examples of text features used for writer voice construction e g specific characteristics of Personal Emergent and Mature Voice are helpful for writing teachers and for developing writers to improve ways of conveying their own intended writer identity to the reader The studies break new ground by extending our analysis of L2 writing to the same writers L1 and L3 writing and multiple genres
