Ticket Scalping Kerry Segrave, 2006-11-15 Ticket scalping is as much an American staple as apple pie Beginning as early as the mid 1800s scalpers known as sidewalk men were charging all the traffic would bear for event tickets Although these speculators were generally viewed as pariahs and public opinion was against the practice legal attempts to limit their activities were far from successful Boston enacted laws as early as 1873 while Pennsylvania followed suit in 1884 Still such measures did little good since some laws were declared unconstitutional and for the ones that were upheld the fines were negligible with jail time rarely served Over the years as moral objections to scalping dimmed the public became more tolerant as the practice became increasingly prevalent By the 1990s the capitalist mantras of free market and economic principles of supply and demand were even being used to justify the practice This volume details the ways in which scalping has changed over the years from a one man business to an agency controlled enterprise from performances by Jenny Lind to Billy Joel The book examines the general situation public opinion and legal perception of scalping for four distinct periods 1850 1899 1900 1917 1918 1949 and 1950 2005 Emphasis is placed on the ways in which public and legal perception of the practice has evolved over this period Scalping slowly gaining a more positive status has become more accepted as part of the economic practice of free markets Buy Shoes on Wednesday and Tweet at 4:00 Mark Di Vincenzo, 2012-09-11 Buy Shoes on Wednesday and Tweet at 4 00 former investigative journalist Mark Di Vincenzo s follow up to his bestselling Buy Ketchup in May and Fly at Noon is another endlessly fascinating and eminently useful compendium of expert tips on perfect timing for a myriad of activities more of the best times to buy this do that and go there Covering an even wider range of topics than before including beauty tips pets cars and children this book is an absolute must for readers of Schott s Miscellany and other collections of useful information and for multi taskers searching for better healthier thriftier ways to do things After all timing is everything What's Free and Cheap in New York Vincent Frontero, 1991 Moon New York City Christopher Kompanek, Moon Travel Guides, 2025-11-11 From the corner bodega to the top of the Empire State Building NYC is overflowing with energy and culture Author and NYC resident Christopher Kompanek shows you how to experience the city like a local with Moon New York City Explore the City Navigate by neighborhood or by activity with color coded maps or follow a self guided neighborhood walk See the Sights Dive into culture at the Metropolitan Museum of Art or stroll down sun dappled paths in Central Park before dinner and a Broadway show Get a Taste of the City From cutting edge fine dining to a slice from a beloved pizzeria New York has something for every palate Bars and Nightlife Jazz clubs beer gardens cocktail lounges world class theater and parties that don t end before dawn New York is truly the city that never sleeps Trusted Advice Native New Yorker and journalist Christopher Kompanek shows you his hometown Strategic Itineraries Make the most of your trip with ideas for foodies culture seekers families traveling with kids and more Full Color Photos and Detailed Maps so you can explore on your own Handy Tools Background information on history and culture plus an easy to read
