Plain and Ornamental Forging Among the many treatises on technical subjects few of a really practical and helpful character are to be found on the general subject of art metal and blacksmith work The author of this book has endeavored to meet this need and to furnish a richly illustrated and fully explained work on the science and art of plain and art metal forging Much time and effort have been expended in arranging material in preparing the text and illustrations and in selecting from among many samples of work those suited to every grade Of ability In particular the attempt has been made to furnish simple and detailed drawings illustrating each important Operation as it is felt that the successive steps may often be shown more clearly in this way than by any amount of discussion About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of
