Chapman, Jacob D. Rawlins, 2020-09-21 This book is a detailed examination of social connections to language evaluation with a specific focus on the values associated with both prescriptivism and descriptivism. The chapters written by authors from many different linguistic and national backgrounds use a variety of approaches and methods to discuss values in linguistic prescriptivism In particular the chapters break down the traditional binary approaches that characterize prescriptive discourse to create a view of the complex phenomena associated with prescriptivism and the values of those who practice it Most importantly this volume continues serious academic conversations about prescriptivism and lays the foundation for Writing to Learn Biology Randy Moore, 2002 Modern English Usage Philip Clark continued exploration Garner's Modern American Usage Bryan A.
