Pioneer Women Of Vancouver Isl 1843 1866:

The Pioneer Women of Vancouver Island, 1843-1866. Written by N. de Bertrand Lugin. Edited by John Hosie. [With Portraits.]. Women's Canadian Club of Victoria (VICTORIA, B.C.), John HOSIE, N. de Bertrand LUGRIN, 1928 The Pioneer Women of Vancouver Island 1843-1866 N. de Bertrand Lugin, 1928 The Pioneer Women of Vancouver Island, 1843-1866 Nellie de Bertrand Lugin, 1928 British Imperial Strategies in the Pacific, 1750-1900 Jane Samson, 2021-02-28

The focus of this volume is Britain's trans Pacific empire. This began with haphazard challenges to Spanish dominion but by the end of the 18th century the British had established a colony in Australia and had gone to the brink of war with Spain to establish trading rights in the north Pacific. These rights led to formal colonies in Vancouver Island and British Columbia when Britain sought to maintain a north Pacific presence despite American expansionism. In the later 19th century the international scramble for the Pacific resulted in new British colonies and protectorates in the Pacific islands. The result was a complex imperial presence created from a variety of motives and circumstances. The essays selected here take account of the wide range of economic, political and cultural factors which prompted British expansion, creating tension in Britain's imperial identity in the Pacific and leaving Pacific peoples with a complicated and challenging legacy. Along with the important new introduction they provide a basis for the reassessment of British imperialism in the Pacific region. Colonial Relations Adele Perry, 2015-04-02

A new perspective on the nineteenth century imperial world through one family's history across North America, the Caribbean and United Kingdom. Revealing how these figures demonstrate complicated historical trajectories of empire and nation. Adele Perry illustrates how gender, intimacy and family were key to making and remaking imperial politics. Before and After the State Allan K. McDougall, Lisa Philips, Daniel L. Boxberger, 2018-03-15

The evolution of the Canada-US borderland in the Pacific Northwest included the wholesale transformation of social organization and individual identities together with the redefinition and application of public power. Before and After the State examines the impact of those changes across a region that already harboured a vibrant, highly complex mélange of societies with dynamic local, regional and global trade and kin networks. Allan McDougall, Lisa Philips and Daniel Boxberger explore fundamental questions of state formation, social transformation and the re-construction of identity to expose the narratives and other devices of nation building, their impact on generations caught in the transition and the reverberations of those national myths that continue to the present. On the Cusp of Contact Jean Barman, 2020-03-28

The ways in which we can redress the past are many and varied, writes Jean Barman, and it is up to each of us to act as best we can. The seventeen essays collected here, originally published between 1996 and 2013, make a valuable contribution toward this laudable goal. With a wide range of source material from archival and documentary sources to oral histories, Barman pieces together stories of individuals and groups disadvantaged in white settler society because of their gender, race and/or social class. Working to recognize past actors that have been underrepresented in mainstream histories, Barman's focus is BC on the cusp of contact. The essays in this collection include fascinating though largely forgotten life stories of the frontier that space between contact and settlement where for a brief moment anything seemed possible This volume featuring over thirty archival photographs and illustrations makes these important and very readable essays accessible to a broader audience for the first time The British Columbia Historical Quarterly ,1956 Includes section The Northwest bookshelf Pioneer and Gentlewomen of British North America, 1713-1867 Beth Light,Alison L.
