The Forgotten Shore Sarah Maine, 2023-08-10 A sweeping and atmospheric story of family ties interwoven mysteries love and redemption set between Scotland and Newfoundland from the author of Waterstones Scottish Book of the Year The House Between Tides 1940 Wounded in action Archie Maxwell returns to his Scottish family estate of Rossie But between the uneasy company of his father's new wife and the nightmares that haunt him he finds the house more of a battleground than a refuge 1980 Journalist Eva Bayne arrives at Rossie looking for a story Since Archie's disappearance forty years ago the Maxwells have lived in the shadows and Eva is drawn to their mystery Especially when a glimpse of a photograph stirs up long buried memories of her childhood in Newfoundland Could uncovering the truth heal the wounds of Eva's past And what will it cost for Rossie to give up its secrets Readers have fallen in love with this story A beautifully written book It kept me turning pages well into the night A brilliant dual timeline that grips you from the first chapter Historical fiction with stunning descriptions and gripping detail A wonderful sense of place and time I felt like I had been on a journey of self discovery

Studies ... Newfoundland, 1999 Places Lost Scott Walden, 2003-01 In the 1950s and 60s the federal and provincial governments closed hundreds of fishing communities along isolated sections of the Newfoundland coastline Join writer and photographer Scott Walden as three decades later he searches amongst the weathered remnants of these ghost towns for the people and places that were lost Architecture Follows Fish Andre Tavares, 2024-11-05 A highly original exploration of the history of architecture in relation to fish shedding light on the connection between marine environments and terrestrial landscapes Architecture Follows Fish is set in the North Atlantic and its protagonist is fish In this book author and architect Andr Tavares explores the notion of fishing architecture a concept coined to describe architectural practices that are spawned by fisheries To encompass the scope of fishing architecture and to establish the connections between marine ecology and architectural practice the book oscillates between different continents centuries and species Fisheries are unique and this book sheds light on that uniqueness through an articulated narrative and a wealth of iconography Up until now there has been no history of architecture from the perspective of fish although there are counterparts for meat timber oil and many other industries Tavares provides a counternarrative to the traditional history of marine environments which tends to focus on water ecosystems and instead forms a bridge between what happens at sea and what happens on land The hope is that after reading this book readers will better understand life in the sea in relation to urban growth and terrestrial landscapes Canadian Books in Print. Acadiensis ,2002 Quill & Quire ,2003 Canadian Books in Print ,1975 Despite this Loss Elizabeth Yeoman,Ursula Anne Kelly,2010 This collection includes a variety of forms art photography personal narrative translation and cross disciplinary scholarly essay to discuss many levels and kinds of loss cultural assimilation and change environmental devastation language loss personal and collective losses community tragedies and a loss of continuity and sense of home and place The book as a whole considers the impact of these losses and their relationship to culture memory and identity As part of this consideration Despite This Loss celebrates and supports new and established lines of inquiry into the structures of feeling that constitute place and belonging The collection includes work by a new generation of cultural workers whose claims to and dreams for this place hold promise and provide a vibrant and provocative array of perspectives on cultural loss Folksongs and Folk Revival Anna Kearney Guigné,2008 In 1965 the classically trained musician and composer Kenneth Peacock published a three volume work Songs of the Newfoundland Outports based on six years of collecting folksongs in that province on behalf of the National Museum of Canada Folksongs and Folk Revival provides a critical review of Peacock s Newfoundland fieldwork to better understand his motivations for creating Outports and his treatment of the materials he collected The study considers the cultural politics of the day such as National Museum policies and directions and in particular how the growth of the Canadian folk revival during the 1950s and 1960s influenced his work It considers the dynamic relations between Peacock and other individuals who had a vested interest in documenting and presenting Newfoundland culture New knowledge regarding Peacock s life and times facilitates our understanding of this man s immense contribution to both Newfoundland and Canadian folklore scholarship while at the same time allowing researchers to make greater use of the materials he so diligently collected Midwives in Passage Cecilia Benoit,Memorial University of Newfoundland. Institute of Social and Economic Research,1991 Midwives in Passage provides a unique look at the organization of midwifery from the vantage point of several generations of midwives in the Canadian province of Newfoundland and Labrador Benoit explores the social factors that undermine or enhance midwives control over their education and practice and calls into question both traditional and recent assumptions concerning professionalism for female service workers International Books in Print ,1986 Current Index to Journals in Education ,1990 "Never Had a Word Between Us" Debora G.
