Plains Women Women In The American West:

Women in the American West Laura E. Woodworth-Ney, 2008-04-03 This engaging narrative synthesizes more than 20 years of historical writing on the history of women in the American West Twenty years after many Western historians first turned their attention toward women Women in the American West synthesizes the development of women's history in the region introduces readers to current thinking on the real experiences of Western women and explores their influence on the course of expansion and development since the 19th century Women in the American West offers vivid portrayals of women as pioneers prostitutes teachers disguised soldiers nurses entrepreneurs immigrants and ordinary citizens caught up in extraordinary times Organized chronologically each chapter emphasizes important themes central to gender and women's history including women's mobility women at home wage labor immigration marriage political participation and involvement in wars at home and abroad With this revealing volume readers will see that women had a far more profound effect on the course of history in the Western United States than is commonly thought

American West Karen R. Jones, 2009-03-21 The American West used to be a story of gunfights glory wagon trails and linear progress Historians such as Frederick Jackson Turner and Hollywood movies such as Stagecoach 1939 and Shane 1953 cast the trans Mississippi region as a frontier of epic proportions where savagery met civilization and boys became men During the late 1980s this old way of seeing the West came under heavy fire Scholars such as Patricia Nelson Limerick and Richard White forged a fresh story of the region a new vision of the West based around the conquest of peoples and landscapes This book explores the bipolar world of Turner's Old West and Limerick's New West and reveals the values and ambiguities associated with both historical traditions Sections on Lewis and Clark the frontier and the cowboy sit alongside work on Indian genocide and women's trail diaries Images of the region as seen through the arcade Western Hollywood film and Disney theme parks confirm the West as a symbolic and contested landscape Tapping into popular fascination with the Cowboy Hollywood movies the Indian Wars and Custer's Last Stand the authors show the reader how to deconstruct the imagery and reality surrounding Western history Key Features Uses popular subjects the Cowboy Hollywood westerns the Indian Wars and Custer's Last Stand to enliven the text Includes 13 b w illustrations Interdisciplinary approach covers film literature art and historical artefacts

Plains Women Paula Bartley, Cathy Loxton, 1991-01 Briefly examines the experiences of women pioneers in the Great Plains as this country expanded westward in the nineteenth century

Journal of Women's History Guide to Periodical Literature, 1992 Gayle V Fischer has produced a terrifically useful volume that no research library should be without The Journal of American History an indispensable resource to finding material on women's history throughout the world Journal of World History the work is recommended for its currency depth of coverage and scope Ethnic Forum As part of its mission to disseminate feminist scholarship and serve as the journal of record for the new area of women's history the Journal of Women's History began a compilation of periodical literature dealing with women's history This volume is drawn from more than 750 journals and includes material published from 1980 through 1990 There are forty subject categories and numerous subcategories The guide lists more than 5 500 articles all are extensively cross listed

Life at Four Corners Carol Coburn,1992 Defined less by geography than by demographic character Block Kansas in many ways exemplifies the prevalent yet seldom scrutinized ethnic religion based community of the rural Midwest Physically small the town sprang up around four corners formed by crossroads Spiritually strong and cohesive it became the educational and cultural center for generations of German Lutheran families In this book Carol Coburn analyzes the powerful combination of those ethnic and religious institutions that effectively resisted assimilation for nearly 80 years only to succumb to the influences of the outside world during the 1930s and 1940s Emphasizing the formal and informal education provided by the church school and family she examines the total process of how values identities and all aspects of culture were transmitted from generation to generation

Unsettled Pasts Sarah Carter,2005 The traditional mythology of the West is dominated by male images the fur trader the Mountie the missionary the miner the cowboy the politician the Chief Unsettled Pasts Reconceiving the West claims to re examine the West through women s eyes It draws together contributions from researchers scholars and academic and community activists and seeks to create dialogue across geographic cultural and disciplinary boundaries Ranging from scholarly essays to poetry these pieces offer the reader a sample of some of today s most innovative approaches to western Canadian women s history several of the themes that run throughout the volume have only recently been critically addressed By rewriting the West from the perspective of women the contributors complicate traditional narratives of the region s past by contesting historical generalizations thus transcending the myths and frontier legacies that emerged out of imperial and masculine priorities and perspectives With Contributions by Kristin Burnett Cristine Georgina Bye Sarah Carter Mary Leah De Zwart Lesley A Erickson Cheryl Foggo Nadine I Kozak Siri Louie Graham A Macdonald Florence Melchior Patricia A Roome Eliane Leslau Silverman Olive Stickney Aritha Van Herk Muriel Stanley Venne Cora J Voyageur

Hunger for the Wild Michael L. Johnson,2007 Americans have had an enduring yet ambivalent obsession with the West as both a place and a state of mind Michael L Johnson considers how that obsession originated how it has determined attitudes toward and activities in the West and how it has changed over the centuries

of the important debates about key issues in the cultural history of the contemporary American West Neil Campbell introduces the ways in which the West has been represented and interpreted within American culture myth and ideology especially questioning the concept of the New West In so doing he looks at the way contemporary theories such as feminism multiculturalism and environmentalism can be used to revise long held notions of the West The book looks in turn at the ways the West has been represented in landscapes and environments art and photography film and literature Introduces theoretical ideas from Bakhtin Benjamin Foucault Deleuze and Guattari Looks at the landscape photography of Ansel Adams Mark Klett and Richard Misrach Explores Westerns including The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance Lonely are the Brave Unforgiven and Heaven s Gate Analyses the work of authors such as Cormac McCarthy Edward Abbey Terry Tempest Williams Raymond Chandler Includes Native American Leslie Marmon Silko Sherman Alexie and Gerald Vizenor and Chicano a Gloria Anzaldua and Sandra Cisneros literature As well as functioning as a survey text the book is original in its combining of ideas texts and materials rarely brought together and in its employment of the tools of cultural studies and interdisciplinary practice As such it will challenge the reader to reconsider conventional ideas about the American West Illustrated with black and white photographs this is an accessible and exciting intervention in one of the most popular aspects of American history

Education for Extinction David Wallace Adams, 1995 The last Indian War was fought against Native American children in the dormitories and classrooms of government boarding schools Only by removing Indian children from their homes for extended periods of time policymakers reasoned could white civilization take root while childhood memories of savagism gradually faded to the point of extinction In the words of one official Kill the Indian and save the man Education for Extinction offers the first comprehensive account of this dispiriting effort Much more than a study of federal Indian policy this book vividly details the day to day experiences of Indian youth living in a total institution designed to reconstruct them both psychologically and culturally The assault on identity came in many forms the shearing off of braids the assignment of new names uniformed drill routines humiliating punishments relentless attacks on native religious beliefs patriotic indoctrinations suppression of tribal languages Victorian gender rituals football contests and industrial training Especially poignant is Adams s description of the ways in which students resisted or accommodated themselves to forced assimilation Many converted to varying degrees but others plotted escapes committed arson and devised ingenious strategies of passive resistance Adams also argues that many of those who seemingly cooperated with the system were more than passive players in this drama that the response of accommodation was not synonymous with cultural surrender This is especially apparent in his analysis of students who returned to the reservation He reveals the various ways in which graduates struggled to make sense of their lives and selectively drew upon their school experience in negotiating personal and tribal survival in a world increasingly dominated by white men The discussion comes full circle when Adams reviews the government s gradual retreat from the assimilationist vision Partly because of persistent student resistance but also partly because of a complex and sometimes contradictory set of progressive humanitarian and racist motivations policymakers did eventually come to view boarding schools less enthusiastically Based upon extensive use of government archives Indian and teacher autobiographies and school newspapers Adams s moving account is essential reading for scholars and general readers alike interested in Western history Native American studies American race relations education history and multiculturalism      Western American Literature ,1992      A History of Women in the United States Doris Weatherford,2004 This four volume reference is intended for high school students and above as well as the general public The first volume opens with introductory essays on the history of feminism on women in various eras from early America through World War II and postwar eras and on women s history in terms of political participation and social activism race and ethnicity and cultural representation These essays are signed and include references Following are alphabetically arranged state articles each opening with a literary quote by a woman and comprising a narrative history supplemented with boxed features spotlighting events people and trends a timeline a biographical section on prominent women a description of relevant sites resources a state map primary document excerpts and a chart of key statistical information Appendices include a chronology primary documents statistical tables and an extensive general bibliography Numerous scholars contributed working under the editorial leadership of Weatherford U of South Florida Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com      Plainswoman ,1987      Rooted in Dust Pamela Riney-Kehrberg,1994 Examines the social impact of drought and depression in Kansas illustrating how both farm and town families dealt with the deprivation by finding odd jobs working in government programmes or depending on federal and private assistance      The American West Michael P.
