Keepers of the Flame Travis Vogan, 2014-03-15 NFL Films changed the way Americans view football Keepers of the Flame NFL Films and the Rise of Sports Media traces the subsidiary's development from a small independent film production company to the marketing machine that Sports Illustrated named perhaps the most effective propaganda organ in the history of corporate America Drawing on research at the NFL Films Archive and the Pro Football Hall of Fame and interviews with media pioneer Steve Sabol and others Travis Vogan shows how NFL Films has constructed a consistent romanticized and remarkably visible mythology for the National Football League The company packages football as a visceral and dramatic sequence of violent beautiful graceful and heroic gridiron battles Historically proven formulas for presentation such as the dramatic voiceovers once provided by John Facenda's baritone the soaring scores of Sam Spence's rousing background music and the epic poetry found in Steve Sabol's scripts are still used today From the Vincent Price narrated Strange but True Football Stories to the currently running series Hard Knocks NFL Films distinguishes the NFL from other sports organizations and from other media and entertainment Vogan tells the larger story of the company's relationship with and vast influence on our culture's representations of sport the expansion of sports television beyond live game broadcasts and the emergence of cable television and Internet sports media Keepers of the Flame NFL Films and the Rise of Sports Media presents sports media as an integral facet of American popular culture and NFL Films as key to the transformation of professional football into the national obsession commonly known as America's Game

Plunkett's Entertainment & Media Industry Almanac, 2008 Cable Vision, 1998 Days of Grace Mark Falkin, 2006-01-17 DAYS OF GRACE tells the story of Ian Johns a bleary and depressed thirty one year old professional student who in the throes of an early life crisis brought on by his mother's untimely death from cancer quits law school after surviving the rigors of its proverbially arduous first year to become an itinerant without a plan With a voice and sensibility that can be likened to Lethem Sedaris Coupland and Kerouac the book is unabashedly picaresque and Neo Beat written in a roman a clef and journalistic style which has been described as modified stream of consciousness It is at times dark and bittersweet but is relentlessly tinged with bright sharp edges of humor As we go forward with Ian on his travels and go back into the near past to sit at his mother's deathbed in his childhood home viewing the world through his admittedly cracked prism we come away having learned something universal about ourselves Y2K America and maybe even mortality itself
