

The Toronto Maple Leafs

Toronto is Canada's most populous city and it has a large industrial sector too. Toronto's National Hockey League (NHL) team is the Toronto Maple Leafs, a team with a long and rich history. That's why John Joseph created the "Maple Leafs" as both a nickname and logo, making the Toronto Maple Leafs one of the most profitable teams in the league.

Leaf Facts

- Established 1917
- Conference Eastern
- Division Atlantic
- City Toronto, Ontario
- Home arena: Scotiabank Arena
- Team colors: Blue, White
- Head Coach: Sheldon Keefe

History

The Toronto Maple Leafs originally did not have the Toronto name but had since they joined the NHL. At first they were known as the Toronto Arenas. The name later changed to the Toronto St. Patricks. But in 1917, when ownership changed to Sam Dwyer, he decided to change the team's name to the Toronto Maple Leafs. Since Dwyer was a member of World War I and he served in, you guessed it, the Maple Leaf Regiment.

Logo

Over the years, the design of the team's logo is different to the original, so perhaps not surprisingly, the team's logo was also inspired by the original. When he first joined Toronto, John Joseph had seen a Maple Leaf cigarette logo. It is said he chose the Maple Leaf for patriotic reasons and he wanted to make it more of a "Toronto pride and heritage".

The logo of the Toronto Maple Leafs (before the larger Maple Leaf) seemed to have one of the team's colors. Another reason the leaf is white referring to the team's name, "Toronto Maple Leafs".
