National Football League long passed baseball as America's favorite but that the National Basketball Association has already bypassed major league baseball as well. And of course since the owners forced Fay Vincent to quit there hasn't been a commissioner to grapple with all these knotty problems. And so the sport of baseball rumbles on without any real direction nor any long range plan to deal with its pressing concerns. Indeed the future of what was once a leisurely pastime hangs in the balance. Like an old ball that has been smacked around once too often major league baseball is quickly coming apart at the seams.
