Point Team No 3 Cobra Strike:

Paperbound Books in Print ,1991 Beyond Black Hawk Down Jonathan Carroll,2025-06-24 The story of Black Hawk Down is a familiar one On 3 October 1993 two Black Hawk helicopters were shot down and in the ensuing Battle of Mogadishu eighteen Americans and hundreds of Somalis were killed But very few appreciate that this was just one day in a two and a half year operation the most ambitious attempt in history to rebuild a nation The United States sought to show the world that the UN could rebuild a country but in a dire foreshadowing of the failed efforts in Iraq and Afghanistan a decade later the intervention in Somalia was plagued with political infighting policy mismatch confusion and fatal assumptions In 1992 Somalia saw the largest ever deployment of American troops to the continent of Africa and 1993 brought the first UN led peace enforcement mission and the most ambitious experiment in nation building In Beyond Black Hawk Down Jonathan Carroll provides the first scholarly military history of the entire intervention from its early and largely successful humanitarian phase in 1992 to the ultimate withdrawal of UN forces in 1995 Carroll dispels the myths and misunderstandings surrounding one of the most infamous episodes of the 1990s to present a new interpretation of events most notably by including the Somali perspective to argue what went so wrong in Somalia and more importantly why Understanding the intervention in Somalia its successes and the roots of its failures is invaluable to contemporary debates on concepts of nation building and counterinsurgency Moreover the increasing regularity of interstate and intrastate conflicts across the world means the international community will continue to be called upon to intervene in other failed or failing states in the future Beyond Black Hawk Down is an important new history that will inform the shape and nature of future military interventions

Enduring Freedom, Enduring Voices Michael G. Walling,2015-01-20 Michael Walling has honored the American men and women who served in Operation Enduring Freedom by helping them tell their own stories This is the war in Afghanistan as experienced by the people who fought it General Tommy R Franks Ret The war in Afghanistan has seen men and women thrown into America's longest sustained combat operation. For over 13 years US military personnel have been embroiled in a conflict unlike any other in a hostile country where danger and death lurk at every turn. The nature of the fighting has transformed not only the entire structure of the US military but the lives of every soldier, sailor, marine, coast guardsman, and airman who served there. There have been many tales told of this most recent Afghan war, but until now no single work has combined the strategic view of high level commanders with the perspective of soldiers on the ground. This book places the first hand accounts of serving men and women into the context of the military operations. Drawing on gripping oral histories from theater commanders, Special Forces troops, reconstruction teams, and everyday soldiers, Michael G. Walling analyzes operations as they were experienced by individuals from those immediately following 9/11 through to those in 2014 as US troops prepared to withdraw. He also charts the evolution of US military structure as it was forced to adapt to cope with the non-conventional but nonetheless deadly threats of asymmetric warfare, as well as detailing covert ops, infrastructure rebuilding, and the training of Afghan forces. Resonating across gender, age, nationality, and ethnicity, this book is not just a document of US fortunes in a far flung conflict. It is a tribute to the determination, heroism, sacrifice, and the strength of the human spirit.

Almost as soon as Saddam Hussein's regime collapsed in 2003 it became apparent to US commanders that a second deployment of Marines to Iraq would be necessary to conduct security and stability operations. This monograph recounts the first two years of this second deployment during which Marines were responsible for Iraq's central Anbar Province. It focuses on I Marine Expeditionary Force's deployment in 2004 and II Marine Expeditionary Force's deployment in 2005 and focuses on planning counterinsurgency operations and efforts to build civil-military relations with the Iraqi population. The first and second battles of Fallujah and the battle of al-Najaf are also highlighted. Athletic Journal, 1981.
