Arr3pios + Eduardo De São José Simões, 2019-06-02 Just tales and stories with crime and murder some are tales of the supernatural The International Review ,1882 American Canto Olivia Nuzzi, 2025-12-02 A mesmerizing firsthand account of the warping of American reality over the past decade as Donald Trump has risen to dominance from a participatory witness who got so far inside the distortion field that it swallowed her whole Olivia Nuzzi spent a third of her life observing those in power She became a reporter in 2014 when the political landscape began to recon figure itself around a singular personality whom she was uniquely primed to understand Over the next ten years she used her access and eye for detail to chronicle his campaigns trials and government in blockbuster feature stories that drove the national conversation and propelled her to the heights of her profession Then in 2024 her personal life collided with the public interest in a scandal that cost Nuzzi her job and reputation Amid a full blown tabloid frenzy Nuzzi went quiet drove west and spent the next year in self imposed exile at the edge of the country where she wrote this searing and astonishingly clear eyed account of what she and we have experienced over the last decade Nuzzi walked through hell and she took notes The result is a brilliant and bracing reckoning with recent history from one of our sharpest political observers Beginning in the present in California and then turning her gaze back east and back in time she crafts a dazzling mosaic of the Trump era her many behind the scenes encounters with Trump himself from their first meeting in Trump Tower to a wealth of revelatory conversations about his Hollywood aspirations his dreams his fears about being assassinated and more the life she led uneasily that skidded to a halt the rise of digital surveillance and the decline of privacy the normalization of political violence and the collision of polarization with the democratization of information to sow doubt about every aspect of our reality American Canto is also a powerful personal history Nuzzi s account of growing up in working class New Jersey as the child of alcoholics in the shadow of New York City and 9 11 is raw and moving Her mother was angry beautiful and unpredictable Her father a loving man who supported his family as a sanitation worker removed debris from Ground Zero They both died young A version of Nuzzi did too She approached this kind of death with the critical distance of a reporter When interrogating her own mistakes Nuzzi confesses I had trained my whole life in the battlefield of crisis Despite her profession Olivia Nuzzi has never been interested in breaking news American Canto is not a memoir nor a tell all nor a book about the president Instead it is something more artful and more interest ing a character study of a nation undergoing radical transformation in real time It seeks to reframe our under standing of the history we are living through from the perspective of someone who observed it from within the kaleidoscope and now sees it clearly from the other side The dramatic works of G.E. Lessing. Transl. Ed. by E. Bell Gotthold Ephraim Lessing, 1878 Munsey's Magazine ,1896 The Challenge of Crime in a Free Society United States. President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice, 1967 This report of the President s Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice established by President Lyndon Johnson on July 23 1965 addresses the causes of crime and delinquency and recommends how to prevent crime and delinquency and improve law enforcement and the administration of criminal justice In developing its findings and recommendations the Commission held three national conferences conducted five national surveys held hundreds of meetings and interviewed tens of thousands of individuals Separate chapters of this report discuss crime in America juvenile delinquency the police the courts corrections organized crime narcotics and drug abuse drunkenness offenses gun control science and technology and research as an instrument for reform Significant data were generated by the Commission's National Survey of Criminal Victims the first of its kind conducted on such a scope The survey found that not only do Americans experience far more crime than they report to the police but they talk about crime and the reports of crime engender such fear among citizens that the basic quality of life of many Americans has eroded The core conclusion of the Commission however is that a significant reduction in crime can be achieved if the Commission's recommendations some 200 are implemented The recommendations call for a cooperative attack on crime by the Federal Government the States the counties the cities civic organizations religious institutions business groups and individual citizens They propose basic changes in the operations of police schools prosecutors employment agencies defenders social workers prisons housing authorities and probation and parole officers
