Policing The Police A Nations Cry:

United Nations and Prison Justice James Vadackumchery, 2014-01-01 The U N Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners 1957 have nearly a century of history behind It was indeed humanitarian in approach to prisoners Nearly 60 years have elapsed since the Rules were accepted by the United Nations Certainly the Rules need a revision now because of 1 a long lapse of six decades and 2 developments in the fields of correction reformation resocialization rehabilitation and reintegration of the inmates in a Centre of Personality Development as the Prisons are now called to society back This book contains a complete revision of the existing UNSMR for the Treatment of Prisoners from 1970 as an international debate discussion is going on ever since The book will be of great interest for anyone concerned with the protection of human dignity to exclude cruelty neglect and degradation to the inmates in a Centre of Personality Development and in particular to minimize the effect and impact of isolation or segregation from the community whatever be the offence committed

Over-Policing Black Bodies Delores D. Jones-Brown, Jason M. Williams, 2023-05-31 The 2020 deaths of George Floyd and Breonna Taylor rekindled decades old concerns about the legitimacy of policing They ignited the international recognition that Black people are subjected to forms of police violence that exceed the boundaries of formal law and human decency This book confirms that the Floyd and Taylor cases are not isolated incidents and provides suggestions toward prevention The contributors to the book have served on both sides of the criminal legal system They have been those who were tasked with enforcing the law and those who have been subject to law enforcement Consequently they are able to identify specific failures of a system that focuses on race specifically Blackness as a primary indicator of criminal propensity Through these chapters the authors suggest academically morally and practically sound corrective measures for moving toward a goal of equal rather than discriminatory and excessively harmful treatment under the law This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Criminology Race and Ethnic Studies Politics Human Rights and Political Sociology It was originally published as a special issue in the Journal of Ethnicity in Criminal Justice

Human Rights, 2018-01-01 The antique dilapidated or rusted Conventions Declarations Rules Principles Codes etc of the United Nations need periodic amendments revision alterations deletions and repeallings Sometimes they must be replaced by another Most unfortunately they do not take place A fair Trial of United Nations means an academic assessment of the existing U N documents on Human Rights and their relevance and validity in the changing and changed scenario This book contains such a trial of Convention against Torture and other Cruel Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment Principles on the Effective Investigation and Documentation of Torture and other Cruel Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment Principles on the Effective Prevention and Investigation of Extra legal Arbitrary and Summary Executions and U N Code of Conduct for Law Enforcement Officials The appraisal of the U N documents will be of great interest for anyone concerned with Human Rights and a new WORLD ORDER
