Political And Citizenship Education International Perspectives:

Political and Citizenship Education Stephanie Wilde, 2005-05-16 This volume examines both concepts and realities of citizenship education from various international and research perspectives It is divided into two main sections The first group of chapters are all by researchers closely associated with the International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement IEA study into citizenship education and focus on the findings reported in the study as well as on the processes of the study itself and the indications for the future The second group of chapters report on research projects and complement the insights of the first group of chapters Whereas Part One involves broadly quantitative empirical data Part Two features chapters with a more qualitative approach The chapters have a broad geographical range including the USA the United Kingdom Australia Hong Kong the Czech Republic and Germany They also report on a variety of different data sets use different research approaches and include findings from the large scale IEA study as well as a personal account of a research network and two qualitative studies International Perspectives on Citizenship, Education and Religious Diversity

Robert Jackson, 2003-09-02 Citizenship is high on the agenda of education systems in many of the world's democracies As yet however discussions of citizenship education have neglected issues of religious diversity and how the study of religions can contribute to our understanding of citizenship International Perspectives on Citizenship Education and Religious Diversity brings together an international range of contributions from religious studies scholars and educators specialising in the study of religions Together these illustrate and explore the key questions for educational theory and pedagogy raised by drawing issues of religious diversity into citizenship education The chapters address and extend debates over the nature of citizenship in late modernity highlighting local and global dimensions of citizenship in relation to issues of national religious ethnic and cultural identity As well as emphasising the role religious education has to play in citizenship education this book also covers wider issues such as state supported faith schools and cultural diversity in relation to common citizenship The authors argue that critical yet reflective approaches to religious education have a distinctive and valuable contribution to make to citizenship education Issues addressed within the study of religions are related to new forms of global and cultural citizenship as well as citizenship within the nation state Ultimately this stimulating and original collection highlights the challenges and possibilities for teaching and learning about religion religions and religious diversity within an inclusive educational practice International Perspectives on Drama and Citizenship Education

Nicholas McGuinn, Norio Ikeno, Ian Davies, Edda Sant, 2021-11-04 WINNER of the Children's Identity and Citizenship European Association's CiCea award for Best Book 2021 this book brings together respected international academics and practitioners from citizenship and drama to debate share their experiences and plan a way forward for academic and professional best practice in drama and citizenship education for a democratic society Drawing on international contributions the chapters explore fundamental ideas about theatre and drama from a global perspective with connections made to action and identity The main section of the book showcases authors from around the world discussing their perspectives of what is happening within particular countries and exploring a range of ideas and issues that relate to vitally important matters including community socialism post colonialism diversity inclusion and more The final section of the book brings together teams of authors from citizenship and drama education who discuss the essential elements of citizenship education and encourage insight and practical collaboration from drama experts The book is unique in presenting dynamic interaction between citizenship and drama experts and encouraging academics and professionals to develop their own work in these areas It will be of great interest to academics researchers and students in the fields of citizenship education drama education and all those interested in promoting social justice through education Global Citizenship Education Abdeljalil Akkari,Kathrine Maleq,2020-08-18

This open access book takes a critical and international perspective to the mainstreaming of the Global Citizenship Concept and analyses the key issues regarding global citizenship education across the world In that respect it addresses a pressing need to provide further conceptual input and to open global citizenship agendas to diversity and indigeneity Social and political changes brought by globalisation migration and technological advances of the 21st century have generated a rise in the popularity of the utopian and philosophical idea of global citizenship In response to the challenges of today s globalised and interconnected world such as inequality human rights violations and poverty global citizenship education has been invoked as a means of preparing youth for an inclusive and sustainable world In recent years the development of global citizenship education and the building of students global citizenship competencies have become a focal point in global agendas for education international educational assessments and international organisations However the concept of global citizenship education still remains highly contested and subject to multiple interpretations and its operationalisation in national educational policies proves to be challenging This volume aims to contribute to the debate question the relevancy of global citizenship education s policy objectives and to enhance understanding of local perspectives ideologies conceptions and issues related to citizenship education on a local national and global level To this end the book provides a comprehensive and geographically based overview of the challenges citizenship education faces in a rapidly changing global world through the lens of diversity and inclusiveness Political Learning and Citizenship Education Under Conflict Orit

Ichilov,2004-09-30 This book analyses social environments in conflict situations with a focus on Israel and Palestine and looks at the impact these environments have on the political learning and citizenship orientations of youngsters Democracy at the Crossroads Cameron White,Roger Openshaw,2005-01-01 In Democracy at the Crossroads the editors argue that there have been too few scholarly attempts to provide a comprehensive critique of the assumptions behind citizenship education In particular they ask the distinguished contributors to this volume to address difficult but essential questions that are often avoided or intentionally overlooked What do all embracing terms like global citizenship really mean What does democracy mean internationally A timely work Democracy at the Crossroads provides a necessary examination and re interpretation of international perspectives on democracy and global citizenship as they apply to social education

School Leadership, Citizenship Education and Politics in China Shuqin Xu, 2016-08-23 This book examines and theorizes the dynamics and complexities of leadership in citizenship education in junior secondary schools in Shanghai China Specifically it examines from a macro and micro political theoretical perspective the interactions between principals and school party secretaries SPSs and how they respond to the demands of macro and micro political actors This qualitative empirical research found four major school leadership citizenship education scenarios in which principals and SPSs addressed the interests of different macro and micro political actors Moreover principals and SPSs enjoyed a complicated working relationship at the micro political school level in which they collaborated to fulfill their responsibilities and respond to school macro and micro political actors while competing for power over leadership in citizenship education Principals and SPSs leadership in citizenship education was shaped by inter related factors including diverse influences in a multi leveled world the integration of politics and education the demands of macro and micro political actors and personal factors To interpret these findings this study proposes a theoretical framework for understanding leadership in citizenship education in China as a political exercise This theoretical framework is useful for understanding the complexity of school and citizenship education leadership the micro political relationship between Chinese principals and SPSs and their dynamic and complex interactions with macro and micro political actors

Citizenship for the 21st Century Cogan, John (Professor of Education, University of Minnesota, USA),Derricott, Ray (Director, Centre for Continuing Education, University of Liverpool),2014-05-01 Civic and citizenship education have emerged as major areas of discussion debate and action regarding their place in the school curriculum in many nations This text sets out to show the importance of citizenship education with examples and contributions from around the world

Nation-Building, Identity and Citizenship Education Joseph Zajda,Holger Daun,Lawrence J. Saha,2008-12-16 A major aim of Nation Building Identity and Citizenship Education Cross cultural Perspectives is to present a global overview of selected scholarly research on global and comparative trends in dominant discourses of identity politics and nation building in comparative education research It provides an easily accessible practical yet scholarly source of information about the international concern in the field of nation building identity and citizenship education Above all the book offers the latest findings on discourses surrounding national identity nation building and citizenship education in the global culture It offers a timely overview of current issues affecting the formation of social identity and citizenship education in the global culture More than ever before there is a need to understand and analyse both the intended and the unintended effects of globalisation and the forces of globalisation on nations organisations communities educational institutions and individuals around the world This is particularly relevant to the evolving and constantly changing notions of nation states national identity and citizenship education globally Current global and comparative research demonstrates a rapidly changing world where citizens are experiencing a growing sense of alienation uncertainty and loss of moral purpose In this stimulating and important book the authors focus on discourses surrounding three major dimensions affecting the national identity nation building and citizenship education debate in education and society ideology democracy and human rights These are among the most critical and significant dimensions defining and contextualising the processes surrounding the nation building and identity

International Perspectives on Education Albert Rolls,2007 Examines different cultural approaches to primary secondary and college education emphasizing literacy and graduation rates the role of the state and social and religious attitudes

Citizenship for the 21st Century John J. Cogan,Ray Derricott,R. Derricott,2000 Civic and citizenship education have emerged as major areas of discussion debate and action regarding their place in the school curriculum in many nations This text sets out to show the importance of citizenship education with examples and contributions from around the world

Integrating Political Science, Education, and Public Policy Russell Francis Farnen,1990 This volume is a collection of ideas of the past present and future interrelationships among political science education socialization and public policy analysis using both American and international perspectives and research findings In addition to a thorough discussion of political socialization findings in a cross national context this book also uses a taxonomic approach in conceptualizing U S civic education during the 1960s and 1970s with an update on the state of U S citizenship education in the 1980s What is proposed here is a practical new model for organizing our political education curricula one which is analytical allows for a dynamic synthesis and stresses the importance of active decision making and policy analysis as key elements in participatory democracy and citizenship education Concluding recommendations comments interpretations and challenges to political educators and researchers complete this unique theoretical and empirical approach to political education Citizenship as Politics ,2009-01-01 This book holds two main concepts citizenship and adult education and presents a diverse scope of ideas and experiences from different countries and perspectives in a rich indication to edify liberating practices and researches Citizenship is closely linked with participation When people are encouraged to take part in an authentic process of decision making people do participate in public affairs Here is the true meaning of citizenship related to the old idea to take part to get involved in public issues and transform their community through participation On the other hand Lifelong Learning s concepts and practices seem to have forgotten that adult education is more than the preparation for a job Adult education is learning for democracy researching communities searching for a school for all transforming communities struggling for our rights becoming awareness about environmental hazards edifying the city or expressing ourselves through theatre or public art Lifelong Learning s concepts and practices seem to have forgotten that life is more than the labour market The entire life of women and men are the substance of what adult education is made of The book is not only addressed to scholars under and postgraduate students interested in citizenship and adult education but also to practitioners working in communities in a participatory way Politics, Education and Citizenship Mal Leicester,Sohan Modgil,2005-08-10 Volume VI is concerned with political education and citizenship Papers from several countries lend an international perspective to currently significant concerns and developments including democracy and democratic education human rights national identity and education for citizenship Citizenship Education around the World John Petrovic,Aaron Kuntz,2014-04-24 Though certainly not a new idea citizenship education manifests in unique and often unpredictable ways in our contemporary neoliberal era The question of what it means to be a productive and recognized citizen must now be understood simultaneously along both global and local lines This edited volume offers an international perspective on citizenship education enacted in specific socio political contexts Each chapter includes a pointed conceptualization of citizenship education a philosophical framework that is then applied to specific national cases across Europe Asia Canada and more Chapters emphasize how such frameworks are implemented within local contexts encouraging particular pedagogical curricular practices even as they constrain others Chapters conclude with suggestions for productive change and how educators might usefully engage contemporary contexts through citizenship education Reconceptualizing Politics, Socialization, and Education Russell Francis Farnen,1993 The International Encyclopedia of Education Torsten Husén,T. Neville Postlethwaite,1994 New Acquisitions Unesco Institute for Education. Documentation Centre and Library,2006
