Political Governance in a Multi-religious World Moses P. Manohar, 2004 Papers presented at the seminar

Multi-Religious Perspectives on a Global Ethic Myriam Renaud, William Schweiker, 2020-11-29 Ratified by the Parliament of the World's Religions in 1993 and expanded in 2018 Towards a Global Ethic An Initial Declaration or the Global Ethic expresses the minimal set of principles shared by people religious or not Though it is a secular document the Global Ethic emerged after months of collaborative interreligious dialogue dedicated to identifying a common ethical framework This volume tests and contests the claim that the Global Ethic's ethical directives can be found in the world's religious spiritual and cultural traditions The book features essays by scholars of religion who grapple with the practical implications of the Global Ethic's directives when applied to issues like women's rights displaced peoples income and wealth inequality India's caste system and more The scholars explore their respective religious traditions ethical response to one or more of these issues and compares them to the ethical response elaborated by the Global Ethic The traditions included are Hinduism Engaged Buddhism Shi'i Islam Sunni Islam Confucianism Protestantism Catholicism Judaism Indigenous African Religions and Human Rights To highlight the complexities within traditions most essays are followed by a brief response by an expert in the same tradition Multi-Religious Perspectives on a Global Ethic is of special interest to advanced students and scholars whose work focuses on the religious traditions listed above on comparative religion religious ethics comparative ethics and common morality Bharatiya Samajik Chintan, 2004 Borders of Global Theory - Reflections from Within and Without

Barrie Axford, 2017-06-27 Global Theory from Within and Without is a critical examination of the concept of globalization There are in sociological theory many definitions of globalization Sociological theory constructs a new theory of globalization starting from the structural changes of social systems at the beginning of the 21st century The research subject is the ongoing connection of global studies and the research program of multiple modernities The structural change is initiated by growing pace and different intensities of social exchange of the subsystems of societal communication in contemporary societies The studies of global scholarship show that the structural change is not an indicator of any unified constitution of social systems Cross-Cultural Conversation Anindita N. Balslev, 2019-06-19 This book proposes a radical shift in the way the world thinks about itself by highlighting the significance of Cross Cultural Conversations Moving beyond conventional boundaries it examines the language in which histories are written analyzes how scientific technology is changing the idea of identity and highlights the need for a larger identity across nationality race religion gender ethnicity and class It asks for a concerted effort to engage each other in open conversational forums on a range of contemporary global issues alter our attitudes toward self and the other and unlearn prejudices that perpetuate the practice of divisive identities The book also explores critical themes such as political actions solidarity in diversity clash of social identities tensions between nationalism and globalism the quest for global peace and authentic meeting of world religions Further it discusses the evolving connection between science and religion focusing on key philosophical ideas that have permeated the Indian cultural soil The book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of philosophy religious studies science and technology studies and cultural studies The Impact of Global Terrorism on Economic and Political Development

Ramesh Chandra Das,2019-05-13 This edited collection seeks to address and analyse the ramifications of terrorism and terrorist activities at a world level with a specific focus on the economies and political systems in the Afro Asian regions
