Political Loyalty And The Nation State:

Political Loyalty and the Nation-State Andrew Linklater, Michael Waller, 2004-06 Examines the weakening of the state's ability to order political allegiances of its subjects Is it possible to invest political principles with loyalty and can political loyalty become merely a matter of choice and personal responsibility

Political Loyalty and the Nation-State Andrew Linklater, Michael Waller, 2004-06-01 Political Loyalty and the Nation State examines the gradual weakening of the state's ability to order the political allegiances of its subjects At the focal centre of the book lies the question of the extent to which it is possible to invest political principles such as the rules and procedures of democracy with a sentiment of loyalty and whether political loyalty can become merely a matter of choice and personal responsibility The authors consider theoretical issues problems of loyalty arising from population movement and case studies of conflicts of loyalty from Italy Northern Ireland and Russia It is shown that loyalty can become decoupled from state territory and nation that loyalties can be multiple and that today's loyalties reflect advanced attitudes towards difference

The Politics of Nation Building and Citizenship in Singapore Michael Hill, Kwen Fee Lian, 2013-06-17 Since independence in 1965 Singapore has strengthened its own national identity through a conscious process of nation building and promoting the active role of the citizen within society Singapore is a state that has firmly rejected welfarism but whose political leaders have maintained that collective values instead of those of autonomous individuals are essential to its very survival The book begins by examining basic concepts of citizenship nationality and the state in the context of Singapore's arrival at independence The theme of nation building is explored and how the creation of a national identity through building new institutions has been a central feature of political and social life in Singapore Of great importance has been education and a system of multilingual education that is part of a broader government strategy of multiculturalism and multiracialism both have served the purpose of building a new national identity Other areas covered by the authors include family planning housing policy the creation of parapolitical structures and the importance of shared Asian values amongst Singapore's citizens

Faith and Loyalty Dzevada Susko, 2024-11-25 In the late 19th century Bosnia and Herzegovina small but strategically significant with a predominantly Muslim population became the subject of great power interests as the Ottoman period shifted to that of Austro-Hungarian rule in 1878 The impact of this on the Bosniak people suddenly finding themselves under the authority of European rather than centuries-old Islamic rule and how they chose to navigate the transition in terms of faith and loyalty is the subject of this work Included in European affairs the Bosniaks managed to straddle two contrasting worlds maintaining their own Islamic interests without alienating those of Central Europe These turbulent times in the post-Ottoman era are remarkable to examine revealing the nature of that transition its complex dynamics and more specifically how new political economic societal and cultural realities as well as radical modernization processes impacted Bosniak Muslims and to what extent loyalties shifted from one civilization Ottoman to another Austro-Hungarian
