Crime, Delinquency and Justice Ramesh Deosaran, 2007 This reader presents fresh insights on the rapidly expanding and changing crime related problems in the Caribbean as well as provides information on new dimensions of crime and criminology that are occurring with increasing regularity A path breaking and comprehensive work Crime Delinquency and Justice A Caribbean Reader has come at a time when all societies in the Caribbean region are grappling with crime in all its forms and when the structure of the justice system on which all these societies are founded is being challenged to adjust to changes in society locally and internationally The work addresses both theoretical and practical issues indicated by the broad range of areas covered including Theorizing a Caribbean Criminology Juvenile Delinquency and Public Policy Domestic Violence and the Criminal Justice System Community Policing Police Styles and Use of Force Corrections Crime Statistics the Jury System Drug Trafficking Terrorism Social Upheaval and Political Violence and Human Trafficking Much of the contributions are research and data driven and overall have policy development as their focus This makes the volume suitable for courses in criminology and criminal justice at both the undergraduate and graduate levels as well as for specialist courses in various aspects of policing and law enforcement

Police and Crime Control in Jamaica Anthony Harriott, 2000 Police and Crime Control in Jamaica is a valuable addition to the sparse literature on policing in developing states and is the first study of its kind dedicated to the state of a police force in a Caribbean territory The work examines the extent and sources of police ineffectiveness in controlling crime It assesses the quality of justice and declining public confidence in the criminal justice system Police reform efforts as well as sources of cynicism among members of the force are analysed This study of policing and citizen state relations is especially relevant to the tourism dependent countries of the Caribbean amid growing recognition of the negative impact of high rates of violent crime on these economies This book will be much valued by students of criminology and criminal justice especially those with an interest in the Caribbean as well as the general reader who is concerned with issues of crime and policing

The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Constitutions Richard Albert, Derek O'Brien, Se-shauna Wheatle, 2020-07-23 The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Constitutions offers a detailed and analytical view of the constitutions of the Caribbean region examining the constitutional development of its diverse countries The Handbook explains the features of the region's constitutions and examines themes emerging from the Caribbean's experience with constitutional interpretation and reform Beginning with a Foreword from the former President of the Caribbean Court of Justice and an Introduction by the lead editor Richard Albert the remainder of the book is divided into four parts Part I Caribbean Constitutions in the World highlights what is distinctive about the constitutions of the Caribbean Part II covers the constitutions of the Caribbean in detail offering a rich analysis of the constitutional history design controversies and future challenges in each country or group of countries Each chapter in this section addresses topics such as the impact of key historical and political events on the constitutional landscape for the jurisdiction a systematic account of the interaction between the legislature and the executive the civil service the electoral system and the independence of the judiciary Part III addresses fundamental rights debates and developments in the region including the death penalty and socio economic rights Finally Part IV features critical reflections on the challenges and prospects for the region including the work of the Caribbean Court of Justice and the future of constitutional reform This is the first book of its kind bringing together in a single volume a comprehensive review of the constitutional development of the entire Caribbean region from the Bahamas in the north to Guyana and Suriname in South America and all the islands in between While written in English the book embraces the linguistic and cultural diversity of the region and covers the Anglophone Caribbean as well as the Spanish French and Dutch speaking Caribbean countries

Policing the Caribbean Benjamin Bowling, 2010-05-27

Policing the Caribbean investigates the emergence of transnational policing practises in response to drug trafficking and organized crime in ten Caribbean territories The book addresses questions of accountability and explores how understandings of national sovereignty are shifting in the face of domestic and global insecurity

Violence in Latin

America and the Caribbean Tina Hilgers, Laura Macdonald, 2017-09-14

Violence in Latin America and the Caribbean is no longer perpetrated primarily by states against their citizens but by a variety of state and non state actors struggling to control resources territories and populations This book examines violence at the subnational level to illuminate how practices of violence are embedded within subnational configurations of space and clientelistic networks In societies shaped by centuries of violence and exclusion inequality and marginalization prevail at the same time that democratization and neoliberalism have decentralized power to regional and local levels where democratic and authoritarian practices coexist Within subnational arenas unique configurations of historical legacies economic structures identities institutions actors and clientelistic networks result in particular patterns of violence and vulnerability that are often strikingly different from what is portrayed by aggregate national level statistics The chapters of this book examine critical cases from across the region drawing on new primary data collected in the field to analyze how a range of political actors and institutions shape people's lives and to connect structural and physical forms of violence

Organized Crime and Politics in Jamaica Anthony

Harriott, 2008 The relationship between politics and crime has stimulated the curiosities of criminologists who understand crime and political scientists who understand the nature of the political system In this volume an attempt is made to bridge both lines of inquiry The nexus between politics and crime is explored by analysing the rise of organized crime in Jamaica

This book represents a dedicated attempt to treat in particular a most troubling and current expression of this nexus between politics and crime that is organized crime It describes the rise of organized crime in Jamaica its internationalization and efforts to consolidate its hold in the cities and towns of Jamaica This development is accounted for in terms of its distinct structural roots and facilitators The analysis is extended by further exploring two critical aspects of the problem political corruption and party financing The analysis of these two aspects captures the long deep and troubling relationship between crime and politics Discussions of crime in Jamaica are impatient of solutions An attempt is therefore made to press the discussion beyond an analysis of the problem to approaches to solving it Consequently the book is structured such that following on from the discussion of each aspect of the problem there is a chapter that explores the broad approaches to problem solving It is intended for a wide readership Tourism, Security and Safety Yoel Mansfeld, Abraham Pizam, 2006 In recent years the tourism industry has focused on the issues of safety and security and sought to develop crisis management solutions This text draws on the work of leading academics and practitioners to create a multi dimensional analysis of the subject International Journal of Comparative and Applied Criminal Justice ,2008 Jamaica, Hated to Death Rebecca Schleifer, 2004 West Indian Law Journal ,2001 Transnational Blackness Manning Marable, Vanessa Agard-Jones, 2008-09-15 The Critical Black Studies Series celebrates its third volume Transnational Blackness The series under the general supervision of Manning Marable features readers and anthologies examining challenging topics within the contemporary black experience in the United States the Caribbean Africa and across the African Diaspora Previously published in the series are Racializing Justice Disenfranchising Lives The Racism Criminal Justice and Law Reader September 2007 and Seeking Higher Ground The Hurricane Katrina Crisis Race and Public Policy Reader January 2008 Celebrating the third volume of CRITICAL BLACK STUDIES Series Editor Manning Marable For many decades black intellectuals in the United States have thought of racism as a global phenomenon Transnational Blackness presents for the first time a comprehensive overview of the history critical analysis and theoretical perspectives of key black scholars and activists on the transnational dynamics of modern race and racism throughout the Americas the Caribbean Africa Asia and Europe The book examines the social thought of among others W E B DuBois Eslanda Goode Robeson Malcolm X Huey P Newton and Michael Manley Caribbean Security in the Age of Terror Ivelaw L. Griffith, 2004 Departmental Reports University of the West Indies (Mona, Jamaica), 2000 Political Culture of Democracy in Jamaica ,2007 Current Awareness Service ,2001 Decolonizing the Colonial City Colin Clarke, 2006-08-31 Colin Clarke investigates the role of class colour race and culture in the changing social stratification and spatial patterning of Kingston Jamaica since independence He concludes with a comparison with the post colonial urban problems of South Africa and Brazil Includes multiple maps produced and compiled using GIS Envisioning Caribbean Futures Brian Meeks, 2007 Employing critical analysis of Caribbean intellectual thought and of the postcolonial political economy Brian Meeks sets about proposing a manifesto for the future What emerges is a programme for the medium term which is pragmatic in its efforts to deal with the current crisis without engaging in the romanticism of an all encompassing revolutionary transformation Meeks suggests a form of participatory reorganization without necessarily dismantling the fundamentals of formal democratic organization Particular emphasis is placed on rural agro producers because their empowerment politically and economically resolves the problem of elite domination while creating the conditions for economic democracy He argues finally that the proposals can become the basis for a more fundamental social and intellectual transformation from following Sylvia Wynter man to human based on democracy community and solidarity      Engendering Human Security Saskia Wieringa,Amrita Chhachhi,2006
