Policy Makers And Critics:

OECD Public Governance Reviews Building Capacity for Evidence-Informed Policy-Making Lessons from Country Experiences OECD,2020-09-08 This report analyses the skills and capacities governments need to strengthen evidence informed policy making EIPM and identifies a range of possible interventions that are available to foster greater uptake of evidence Increasing governments capacity for evidence informed is a critical part of good public governance However an effective connection between the supply and the demand for evidence in the policy making process remains elusive This report offers concrete tools and a set of good practices for how the public sector can support senior officials experts and advisors working at the political administrative interface This support entails investing in capability opportunity and motivation and through behavioral changes The report identifies a core skillset for EIPM at the individual level including the capacity for understanding obtaining assessing using engaging with stakeholders and applying evidence which was developed in collaboration with the European Commission Joint Research Centre It also identifies a set of capacities at the organisational level that can be put in place across the machinery of government throughout the role of interventions strategies and tools to strengthen these capacities The report concludes with a set of recommendations to assist governments in building their capacities

Making Critical Sense of Immigrant Experience Rosalie K.S. Hilde,2017-11-21 This book provides a critical voice to immigrants through their subjective workplace experiences Through a lens of critical sensemaking CSM stakeholders can understand the role of sensemaking in immigrants decisions and to refocus the debate around immigration policy from structural to discursive approaches

Decision Support Systems in Critical Care M.Michael Shabot,Reed M. Gardner,2012-12-06 Modern critical care is characterized by the collection of large volumes of data and the making of urgent patient care decisions The two do not necessarily go together easily For many years the hope has been that ICU data management systems could play a meaningful role in ICU decision support These hopes now have a basis in fact and this book details the history methodology current status and future prospects for critical care decision support systems By focusing on real and operational systems the book demonstrates the importance of integrating data from diverse clinical data sources the keys to implementing clinically usable systems the pitfalls to avoid in implementation and the development of effective evaluation methods

The Insurance Critic ,1899 Policy Makers and Critics Cecil Van Meter Crabb,1986-11-07 Here is the revised edition of a text that has practically become a classic in the field of American foreign policy Like its predecessor the new edition of Policy Makers and Critics addresses America s policy abroad and why it is so difficult for policymakers and the public to agree on our proper and legitimate role in world affairs With events in South Africa Libya the Philippines and Haiti among others the book may be more timely now than ever before

Discourses of Danger & Dread Frontiers Graeme Cheeseman,Robert H. Bruce,1996 The contributors to this volume offer a comprehensive theoretical critique of the closed and introspective approaches which both define and determine contemporary Australian defence and security policy They critically assess the basic assumptions of mainstream security thinking challenging existing orthodoxies and means of framing reality The authors call on policy makers academics and others working on defence and security issues to think more critically and theoretically to begin to ask some of the difficult questions that are being raised in other disciplines and finally to recognise and accept the contested and problematic nature of many of the concepts that they advance as if they were self evident Discourses of Danger is a timely and provocative book which complements and advances the work of the Secure Australia Project and other critics of the Australian security mainstream Back cover Criticism on the Recent Financial Policies of the United States and France Henry Carey

The Politics of Plant Closings John Portz,1990 A paper reprint of the 1988 original It is a political history that describes and analyzes the management of organized knowledge Wheatley takes Flexner and the Carnegie Foundation of 1910 as the model Portz political science Northeastern U combines a synthesis of the literature on urban politics and political economy with a close analysis of plant closings in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania Louisville Kentucky and Waterloo Iowa to illuminate the complexity of constraints upon and range of local government efforts to control the economic damage caused by shutdowns Paper edition unseen 12 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Nontimber Forest Products in the United States Eric T. Jones,Rebecca Jean McLain,James F. Weigand,2002 A quiet revolution is taking place in America s forests Once seen primarily as stands of timber our woodlands are now prized as a rich source of a wide range of commodities from wild mushrooms and maple sugar to hundreds of medicinal plants whose uses have only begun to be fully realized Now as timber harvesting becomes more mechanized and requires less labor the image of the lumberjack is being replaced by that of the forager This book provides the first comprehensive examination of nontimber forest products NTFPs in the United States illustrating their diverse importance describing the people who harvest them and outlining the steps that are being taken to ensure access to them As the first extensive national overview of NTFP policy and management specific to the United States it brings together research from numerous disciplines and analytical perspectives such as economics mycology history ecology law entomology forestry geography and anthropology in order to provide a cohesive picture of the current and potential role of NTFPs The contributors review the state of scientific knowledge of NTFPs by offering a survey of commercial and noncommercial products an overview of uses and users and discussions of sustainable management issues associated with ecology cultural traditions forest policy and commerce They examine some of the major social economic and biological benefits of NTFPs while also addressing the potential negative consequences of NTFP harvesting on forest ecosystems and on NTFP species populations Within this wealth of information are rich accounts of NTFP use drawn from all parts of the American landscape from the Pacific Northwest to the Caribbean From honey production to a review of nontimber forest economies still active in the United States such as the Ojibway harvest of plants recounted here the book takes in the whole breadth of recent NTFP issues including ecological concerns associated with the expansion of NTFP markets and NTFP tenure issues on federally managed lands No other volume offers such a comprehensive overview of NTFPs in North America By examining all aspects of these products it contributes to the development of more sophisticated policy and management frameworks for not only ensuring their ongoing use but also protecting the future of our forests
