Political Philosophy At The Closure Of Metaphysics:

Political Philosophy at the Closure of Metaphysics Bernard Flynn, 1992-04-01 Considers the consequences for political philosophy of what contemporary philosophers have called the end or closure of metaphysics This work begins by evoking the different meanings of the notion of closure especially in the works of Nietzsche and Heidegger Gefährdete

Öffentlichkeit Henning Klingen, 2008 Religious Experience and the End of Metaphysics Jeffrey Bloechl, 2003 Does religious thinking stand in opposition to postmodernity Does the existence of God present the ultimate challenge to metaphysics Strands of continental thought especially those running from Kant Husserl and Heidegger focus on individual consciousness as the horizon for all meaning and provide modern philosophy of religion with much of its present ferment In Religious Experience and the End of Metaphysics 11 influential continental philosophers share the conviction that religious thinking cannot afford to disengage from the challenges of modern European philosophy Together they provide a rich and intriguing set of answers to questions surrounding the meaning of religious experience Topics include subjectivity selfhood and rationality language community and ethics the influence of Jewish and eastern religions on religious experience God as phenomenology and religion in the postmodern age These lucid and arresting essays bring together many of the leading voices in the contemporary continental debate on God and religion Portraits of American Continental Philosophers James R. Watson, 1999 Taken together these intimate self portraits provide a vibrant overview of the multiplicity and depth of continental philosophy in America Jacket Language and the "burden" of Politics Samuel Allen Chambers, 1998

1830-1848, the End of Metaphysics as a Transformation of Culture Herbert De Vriese, 2003 The question of the end of metaphysics is generally considered as a central issue concerning the nature and significance of philosophy as such and accordingly as belonging to the realm of pure or fundamental philosophy By contrast this book investigates to what extent the end of metaphysics might be related to specific influences from outside philosophy Focusing on the period between 1830 and 1848 it argues that metaphysics was not so much challenged by internal philosophical argument but rather by a transformation of Western culture in its entirety Metaphysics was overtaken by the modern spirit of the age In consequence this book approaches the end of metaphysics as a problem of the philosophy of culture Three historians of culture provide an overview and analysis of the Age of Revolution by focusing upon the political revolution in France the industrial revolution in England and the intellectual revolution in Germany respectively The proclamations of the end of metaphysics by Auguste Comte Friedrich Engels and Otto Friedrich Gruppe are shown to mirror this threefold cultural transformation Against this backdrop the idea of the end of metaphysics is brought into relief as a historical reality during the years 1830 to 1848 The editors are members of the Centre for Metaphysics and Culture at the University of Antwerp Graduate Faculty

Kant & Political Philosophy Ronald Beiner, William James Booth, 1993-01-01 In recent years there has been a major revival of interest in the political philosophy of Immanuel Kant Thinkers have looked to Kant's theories about knowledge history the moral self and autonomy and nature and aesthetics to seek the foundations of their own political philosophy This volume written by established authorities on Kant as well as by new scholars in the field illuminates the ways in which contemporary thinkers differ regarding Kantian philosophy and Kant's legacy to political and ethical theory The book contains essays by Patrick Riley Lewis White Beck Mary Gregor and Richard L Velkley that place Kant in the tradition of political philosophy chapters by Dieter Henrich Susan Shell Michael W Doyle and Joseph M Knippenberg that examine Kantian perspectives on history and politics contributions by William A Galston Bernard Yack William James Booth and Ronald Beiner that judge the Kantian legacy and classic discussions by John Rawls Jürgen Habermas Charles Taylor and Hans Georg Gadamer that present different perspectives on contemporary debates about Kant Bibliographie Internationale Des Recensions de la Littérature Savante, 1983

Making Communism Hermeneutical Silvia Mazzini, Owen Glyn-Williams, 2017-09-04 This book aims to provide fresh perspectives on Vattimo and Zabala's groundbreaking foundational text Hermeneutic Communism from 2011 The contributors to this collection of essays explore various facets of Vattimo and Zabala's anarchic hermeneutics and weak communism in order to investigate the concepts resulting from them such as framed democracies, armed capitalism and conservative impositions. Vattimo and Zabala's text is one of the most innovative contributions to the current debate on Communism in which authors such as Badiou, Negri and Rancière have been the protagonists so far. The unique and original contribution of Vattimo and Zabala's position consists in letting politics evolve from one of the anarchic origins of hermeneutics: the end of truth. This triggers the essential question of how far politics is possible without truth. One of the essential methodologically innovative characteristics of this collection is its dialogical hermeneutical form which is achieved by inserting Vattimo and Zabala's personal reactions to each essay in the book. By responding to each chapter in turn, Vattimo and Zabala establish a hermeneutic dialogue with the contributors. Thus hermeneutics will not only be a central topic but also an epistemological, concrete application of Vattimo and Zabala's theories. An indispensable critical tool for students, researchers, professors, activists and general readers interested in the philosophical and political debate on Communism which encompasses a wide variety of disciplines such as philosophy, political science, sociology, postcolonial studies, critical theory and Latin American studies. Offering an innovative first analysis of the new concepts of Hermeneutic Communism, this book represents a vital contribution to the understanding of the intriguing interrelation between philosophical hermeneutics and political communism. A very much needed and refreshing perspective for all those interested in rethinking radical politics beyond both political Eurocentrism and philosophical imperialism. Chiara Bottici, New School of Social Research and author of Imaginal Politics. The book offers much food for thought both for those who have given up hope and for those who have been fighting for a better world for some time. The contributions to Making Communism Hermeneutical may be seen as a step in the direction of a much needed change in thinking. David Block, ICREA Research Professor in Sociolinguistics, Universitat de Lleida. Prima Philosophia, 1999. The Philosopher's Index, 2008. Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts.

Karl Jaspers Dr Chris Thornhill, Chris Thornhill, 2013-10-31 This book sets out a new reading of the much neglected philosophy of Karl Jaspers. By questioning the common perception of Jaspers either as a proponent of irrationalist cultural philosophy or as an early peripheral disciple of Martin Heidegger, it re-establishes him as a central figure in modern European philosophy. Giving particular consideration to his position in epistemological, metaphysical and political debate, the author argues that Jaspers's work deserves renewed consideration in a number of important discussions, particularly in hermeneutics, anthropological reflections on religion, the critique of idealism and debates on the end of metaphysics.
