Political Power In Pre Colonial Buganda:

Political Power in Pre-colonial Buganda Richard J. Reid, 2002 Buganda was one of the most favoured of East Africa's inter-lacustrine kingdoms. Blessed with fertile and well-watered soil capable of supporting a relatively dense population, it became a major regional power by the mid-19th century. North America: Ohio University Press; Uganda: Fountain Publishers. Die Rückkehr der Könige von Uganda Raphaela von Weichs, 2014-03-15 Königen und anderen sakralen Herrschern wurde außergewöhnliches Charisma, Heilskraft und Führungsmacht zugeschrieben, so auch in Afrika. Könige gelten bis heute als eine Form politischer Kultur, auch wenn ihre Legitimation in der Moderne ständig in Frage gestellt wird. Seit der strukturellen Krise und dem Rückzug des Staates kehren die Könige von Uganda auf ihre Throne zurück. Einst dem Nationalstaat geopfert, gelten sie nun als Hüter von Traditionen und Kultur und als Krisenmanager. Was aber macht sie heute noch zu Königen? Gelten sie weiterhin als sakral? Wie gestaltet sich die Gesellschaft im modernen Königtum in Afrika, und mit welchen Mitteln und Medien regiert der König? Raphaela von Weichs' ethnologische Studie verknüpft auf innovative Weise zentrale Debatten der politischen Anthropologie mit aktuellen Ansätzen der Medien- und Religionsforschung. Sie analysiert die Rückkehr der Könige anhand des letzten Reiches im Westen Ugandas, Bunyoro Kitara, und zeigt damit die Dynamik politischer Kultur im modernen Afrika.

The Palgrave Handbook of African Politics, Governance and Development Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2017-10-10 This handbook constitutes a single collection of well-researched articles and essays on African politics, governance and development from the pre-colonial through colonial to the post-colonial eras. Over the course of these interconnected periods, African politics have evolved with varied experiences across different parts of the continent. As politics is embedded both in the economy and the society, Africa has witnessed some changes in politics, economics, demography and its relations with the world in ways that requires in-depth analysis. This work provides an opportunity for old and new scholars to engage in the universe of the debate around African politics, governance and development and will serve as a ready reference material for students, researchers, policy makers and investors that are concerned with these issues.

Women in African Colonial Histories Jean Allman, Susan Geiger, Nakanyike Musisi, 2002-04-01 How did African women negotiate the complex political, economic and social forces of colonialism in their daily lives? How did they make meaningful lives for themselves in a world that challenged fundamental notions of work, sexuality, marriage, motherhood and family? By considering the lives of ordinary African women—farmers, queen mothers, midwives, urban dwellers, migrants and political leaders—in the context of particular colonial conditions at specific places and times, Women in African Colonial Histories challenges the notion of a homogeneous African women's experience. While recognizing the inherent violence and brutality of the colonial encounter, the essays in this lively volume show that African women were not simply the hapless victims of European political rule. Innovative use of primary sources, including life histories, oral narratives, court cases, newspapers, colonial archives and physical evidence, attests that African women's experiences defy static representation. Readers at all levels will find this an important contribution to ongoing debates in African women's history and African colonial history

A Military History of Africa Timothy J. Stapleton, 2013-10-21 A detailed and thorough chronological overview of the history of warfare and military structures in Africa covering ancient times to the present day A Military History of Africa achieves a daunting task it synthesizes decades of specialized academic research and literature including the most recent material to offer an accessible survey of Africa's military history from the earliest times to the present day The first volume examines the precolonial period beginning with warfare in ancient North Africa including ancient Egypt and Carthage and continues through the cavalry based Muslim empires of the trans Sahara trade and the wars of the slave trade in West and East Africa The second volume focuses on the wars of European colonial conquest and African resistance during the late 19th century African participation in both world wars and the early violent struggles for independence from the 1950s and early 1960s The third volume explores warfare in postcolonial Africa including coverage of the impact of the global Cold War conflicts in Southern Africa from the 1960s to 1980s the development of postcolonial African armed forces and civil wars sparked by the discovery of precious resources such as diamonds in Sierra Leone Readers of this three volume work will understand how warfare and military structures have been consistently central to the development of African societies

America and the Production of Islamic Truth in Uganda Yahya Sseremba, 2023-05-16 This book investigates the ways in which the war on terror has transformed the postcolonial state in Africa Taking American intervention in Islamic education in Uganda as the entry point the book demonstrates how state control over Islamic truth production and everyday Muslim life has increased During the colonial period the Muslims in Uganda were governed in two ways partly as lesser citizens within the Christian dominated civil sphere and partly as members of a distinct Muslim domain In this domain a local system of Islamic education developed with a degree of autonomy that reflected the limits of the colonial state in shaping the Muslim subject In the subsequent postcolonial period systems of patronage and clientelistic networks dominated and Muslim leaders were co-opted by the state but without much real interference in the day to day lives of ordinary Muslims However as part of the war on terror the US State Department seeks to bring the mechanisms of Islamic truth production especially the madrasa under direct state control and civil society scrutiny This book argues that the Muslim domain as a separate entity is coming to an end as it is being absorbed into the civil sphere unifying the state's domination of society The book also analyzes local Ugandan Muslim initiatives to modernise and contextualize their own education and religion and how these initiatives are shaped by and transcend the dominant power A thorough exploration of US foreign policy and Islamic education this book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of Political Studies African Studies and Religious Studies

Anxiety in and about Africa Andrea Mariko Grant, Yolana Pringle, 2020-12-01 How does anxiety impact narratives about African history culture and society This volume demonstrates the richness of anxiety as an analytical lens within African studies Contributors call attention to ways of thinking about African spaces physical visceral somatic and imagined as well as about time and temporality Through a multidisciplinary approach the volume also brings histories of anxiety in colonial settings into conversation with work on the so called negative emotions in disciplines beyond history While anxiety has long been acknowledged for its ability to unsettle colonial narratives to reveal the vulnerability of the colonial enterprise this volume shows it can equally complicate contemporary narratives such as those of sustainable development migration sexuality and democracy These essays therefore highlight the need to take emotions seriously as contemporary realities with particular histories that must be carefully mapped out

African Successes, Volume IV Sebastian Edwards, Simon Johnson, David N. Weil, 2016-09-23 Studies of African economic development frequently focus on the daunting challenges the continent faces From recurrent crises to ethnic conflicts and long standing corruption a raft of deep rooted problems has led many to regard the continent as facing many hurdles to raise living standards Yet Africa has made considerable progress in the past decade with a GDP growth rate exceeding five percent in some regions The African Successes series looks at recent improvements in living standards and other measures of development in many African countries with an eye toward identifying what shaped them and the extent to which lessons learned are transferable and can guide policy in other nations and at the international level The fourth volume in the series African Successes Sustainable Growth combines informative case studies with careful empirical analysis to consider the prospects for future African growth

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

Identity in Ethiopia Kjetil Tronvoll,2009 Examines war and the impact of warfare on identity formation in Ethiopia Images of war narratives of suffering and notions of ethnicity are intrinsically linked to Western perceptions of Africa Filtered through a mostly international media the information of African wars is confined to narrow categories of explanation emerging from and adapted to a Western history and political culture This book aims at reversing this process to look at war and suffering from the point of view of those who fight it and suffer through it Indoeing so it reveals that the simplistic models explaining contemporary wars in Africa which are reproduced in a Western discourse are basically false This book examines the understanding of war and the impact of warfare onthe formation and conceptualisation of identities in Ethiopia Building on historical trajectories of enemy images the recent Eritean Ethiopian war 1998 2000 is used as an empirical backdrop to explore war s formative impact by analysing politics of identity and shifting perceptions of enemies and allies KJETIL TRONVOLL is Professor in Human Rights Peace and Conflict Studies at the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights University of Oslo Hisother publications include Brothers at War Making Sense of the Eritrean Ethiopian War co author James Currey Ohio University Press 2000 and The Ethiopian Red Terror Trials Transitional Justice Challenged co editor James Currey 2009

Pastoralism & Politics in Northern Kenya & Southern Ethiopia Günther Schlee,Abdullahi A. Shongolo,2012 This study based on anthropological field research over a period of thirty four years focuses on pastoralism politics policies and development in northern Kenya and southern Ethiopia It attempts a synthesis of historical findings political anthropology and development interventions Presenting a detailed ethnographic view of recent events of ethnic violence in Kenya the authors analyse how local patterns of conflict among pastoralists were influenced by both national and regional politics which have encouraged an increased tendency of territorialized ethnicity The authors propose ways of getting out of the ethnic trap and revitalizing a mobile livestock economy in a region where other forms of land use are impossible or much less effective
