served the needs of musicians for three decades Worster examines Effinger's development as a composer from his early years in Colorado Springs to his service as a band leader in the Army Air Force his emergence as a prominent regional composer and finally to his retirement from teaching but not composing The second part of the book discusses his theoretical approach to composition and analyzes five of his works that are both stylistically representative and important A final section provides a complete catalog of resource materials that are contained in the Effinger archives of the American Music Research Center at the University of Colorado in Boulder including scoring publication and premiere performance information Includes 10 black and white photographs musical examples and tables A Guide to Piano Music by Women Composers: Women born after 1900 Pamela Youngdahl Dees, 2002 Chou Wen-Chung Peter M.
