Rimbaud Complete Vol 1 Poetry And Prose

Robert Duncan, Charles Olson

Rimbaud Complete Vol 1 Poetry And Prose:

Literature, Geography, Translation Stefan Helgesson, 2011-05-25 The present volume connects three academic fields that share central concerns but remain surprisingly isolated from each other world literature studies postcolonial studies and translation studies It approaches translation not as a vague metaphor but as a distinct and socially embedded practice that connects literatures In similar vein it interrogates the smoothness of many versions of global theory by insisting on the specificity of place and the resistance to translatability among languages oeuvres and genres The topics covered in the chapters include the formation of world literature as a programme of study the French concept of littérature mondiale the rise of English in nineteenth century Sweden the translation of Arabic literature in Europe and the transnationalism of the avant garde Through such case studies and by drawing on the theoretical frameworks of douard Glissant Pierre Bourdieu and David Damrosch among others the international group of contributors add substantially to the theoretical and methodological consolidation of world literature as a field of research

Things in Poems Josef Hrdlička, Mariana Machová, 2022-10-01 In this volume fifteen scholars and poets from Austria Britain Czechia France Germany Ireland Lithuania and Russia explore the topic of things and objects in poetry written in a number of different languages and in different eras The book begins with ancient poetry then moves on to demonstrate the significance of objects in the Chinese poetic tradition From there the focus shifts to things and objects in the poetry of the twentieth and the twenty first century examining the work of Czech Polish and Russian poets alongside other key figures such as Rilke Francis Ponge William Carlos Williams and Paul Muldoon Along the way the reader gets an introduction to key terms and phrases that have been associated with things in the course of poetic history such as ekphrasis objective lyricism and hyperobjects

An Open Map Robert Duncan, Charles Olson, 2017-12-15 The 130 letters collected in this volume begin in 1947 just after Robert Duncan and Charles Olson first meet in Berkeley California and continue to Olson's death in January 1970

Cities, Railways, Modernities Carlos López Galviz, 2019-01-10 Cities Railways Modernities chronicles the transformation that London and Paris experienced during the nineteenth century through the lens of the London Underground and the Paris Métro By highlighting the multiple ways in which the future of the two cities was imagined and the role that railways played in that process it challenges and refines two of the most dominant myths of urban modernity A planned Paris and an unplanned London The book recovers a significant body of work around the ideas the plans the context and the building of metropolitan railways in the two cities to provide new insights into the relationship of transport technologies and urban change during the nineteenth century

Breach of Trust/Abuso de Confianza Angel Escobar Varela, 2016-07-15 The best known work by acclaimed Cuban poet Angel Escobar is known by many as the most devastating book of his poetic generation It is his first to be offered to an English speaking audience Merging personal and collective meditations these twenty three poems perform an indictment of violence Escobar's poetry delineates lacerations etched on bodies and minds by the sanguinary twentieth century which unfolded out of a longer modernity spanning the Americas Breach of Trust Abuso de confianza outlived its author who took his own life in 1997 Brief and implicit appeals for justice and love offset the book's abject theatricality Escobar's tragic masterpiece deftly interweaves themes into a striking synthesis offered in the spirit of survival Award winning translator Kristin Dykstra introduces this collection with a comprehensive examination of Escobar's life work and the times within which he wrote Dykstra situates Escobar's poetic abjection as his drive to confront thingification face to non face

Liquidation World Alexi Kukuljevic, 2017-09-15 An examination of the disoriented subject of modernity a dissolute figure who makes an object of its absence from Baudelaire to Broodthaers In Liquidation World Alexi Kukuljevic examines a distinctive form of subjectivity animating the avant garde that of the darkly humorous and utterly disoriented subject of modernity a dissolute figure that makes an art of its own vacancy an object of its absence Shorn of the truly rotten illusion that the world is a fulfilling and meaningful place these subjects identify themselves by a paradoxical disidentification through the objects that take their places They have mastered the art of living absently of making something with nothing Traversing their own morbid obsessions they substitute the nonsensical for sense the ridiculous for the meaningful Kukuljevic analyzes a series of artistic practices that illuminate this subjectivity ranging from Marcel Duchamp's Three Standard Stoppages to Charles Baudelaire's melancholia He considers the paradox of Duchamp's apparatus in the Stoppages and the strange comedy of Marcel Broodthaers's relation to the readymade the comic subject in Jacques Vach and the ridiculous subject in Alfred Jarry the nihilist in Paul Valéry's Monsieur Teste Oswald Wiener's interpretation of the dandy and Charles Baudelaire as a happy melancholic Along the way he also touches on the work of Thomas Bernhard Andy Kaufman Buster Keaton and others Finally he offers an extended analysis of Danny's escape from his demented father in Stanley Kubrick's The Shining Each of these subjects is in Freud's terms sick sick in the specific sense that they assume the absence of meaning and the liquidation of value in the world They concern themselves with art without assuming its value or meaning Utterly debased fundamentally disoriented they take the void as their medium
