Risc Heroic Heroes:

Risc! David Usher Emerson,1999-12-01 Being the seventh child of parents who were in the printing business my life was formed in four stages at a very early age My father who was in the printing business died when I was about a year and a half old Leaving my sainted mother with seven children to raise The oldest being less than fourteen Naturally in order to feed her family she had to run the business which meant housekeepers At 4 years old I was playing down at Allens woods where they had been logging The ground was covered with sawdust which felt good to my bare feet All of a sudden the ground gave way and my foot plunged into a red hot underground fire I screamed at the top of my lungs And continued to scream all the way up the hill and into my house where I raced for the bathroom turned on the water in the tub and plunged my foot into the cold water still screaming I heard our housekeeper screaming at the top of her lungs Drown him Drown him Drown him At 5 years old another housekeeper had to take me to her home and take care of me until my mother could pick me up She lived on a houseboat She and her husband who filed saws for a living were keeping me entertained All of a sudden a man carrying a bottle of moonshine entered the house When they explained to him about me he suggested they send me out to swim They then informed him that I couldnt swim The Man then suggest that the best way a child could learn to swim was to throw him in As you can imagine the alarms went off in my head I made a beeline for the bathroom locked the door and told them that I would not come out until the moon shiner had left At six years old I was put in a play at school I dont remember the name of the play but my part was to dance the two step with a girl while singing Ill take you home again Cathleen My mother and my sister dressed me in a costume that consisted of black paten leather buckle shoes knee high white stockings black velvet short pants a long sleeved heavily laced white shirt While all this was going My mother and my sister dressed me in a costume that consisted of black paten leather buckle shoes knee high white stockings black velvet short pants a long sleeved heavily laced white shirt on my brothers teased and teased with sissy sissy sissy or Little Lord Fauntleroy never letting up You can imagine how I felt while walking to the church auditorium room where the play was to take place As I reached for the door to enter In my mind I could still hear my brothers hollering sissy sissy Little Lord Fauntleroy I just could not bring myself to open that Door I turned and went back home To me this was the cruelest thing I had ever done to anyone in my life Let alone a little girl who missed the play because of me I have never forgotten it and I never will These stories have had a lasting effect about people including myself Probably one reason why Im self educated along with being extremely independent David Usher Emerson Handbook of Heroism and Heroic Leadership Scott T. The Lucifer Effect Philip Zimbardo,2011-04-30 In The Lucifer Effect the award winning and internationally respected psychologist Philip Zimbardo examines how the human mind has the capacity to be infinitely caring or selfish kind or cruel creative or destructive He challenges our conceptions of who we think we are what we believe we will never do and how and why almost any of us could be initiated into the ranks of evil doers At the same time he describes the safeguards we can put in place to prevent ourselves from corrupting or being corrupted by others and what sets some people apart as heroes and heroines able to resist powerful pressures to go along with the group and to refuse to be team players when personal integrity is at stake Using the first in depth analysis of his classic Stanford Prison Experiment and his personal experiences as an expert witness for one of the Abu Ghraib prison guards Zimbardo s stimulating and provocative book raises fundamental questions about the nature of good and evil and how each one of us needs to be vigilant to prevent becoming trapped in the Lucifer Effect no matter what kind of character or morality we believe ourselves to have The Lucifer Effect won the William James Book Award in 2008
