Riders To The Sea Dodo Press:

The Blasket Islandman Gerald Hayes, 2018-05-04 Tom s Criomhthain 1856 1937 is one of the giants of Irish language literature His best known books Allagar na hInise and An tOile nach are acknowledged classics But he was a highly unlikely author He lived his entire life on the isolated and now abandoned Great Blasket in a house he built with his own hands using stones he found on the island Likewise he crafted a valuable literary heritage out of island life With indefatigable persistence he steadily built on his modest formal education learning to read and write in Irish during middle age while simultaneously expanding his knowledge of literature and history Scholarly visitors were impressed with Tom s s observations of his tiny community They encouraged him to commit his stories and memories to paper He wrote three first person accounts of his experiences bequeathing to us a captivating saga of a folk culture doomed by difficult circumstances His works are among the first examples of Ireland s transition from oral to written folk storytelling The Blasket Islandman tells for the first time the full story of Tom s s life with its many triumphs and travails This absorbing account also describes the forces that influenced his work and details his impressive legacy Tom s was determined that his community be remembered In the process he achieved a level of immortality for himself More than eighty years after his passing he remains the famed Blasket Islandman and to paraphrase the man himself the like of him will never be again

Speculative & Science Fiction Ernest N. Emenyonu, Chimalum Nwankwo, Louisa Uchum Egbunike, 2021 Over the past two decades there has been a resurgence in the writing of African and African diaspora speculative and science fiction writing Discussions around the rise of science fiction and fantasy have led to a push back by writers and scholars who have suggested that this is not a new phenomenon in African literature This collection focuses on the need to recalibrate ways of reading and categorising this genre of African writing through critical examinations both of classics such as Kojo Laing s Woman of the Aeroplanes 1988 and Ng g wa Thiong o s oeuvre as well as more recent fiction from writers including Nnedi Okorafor Namwali Serpell and Masande Ntshanga Back cover

Ethics of Alaska Travel Writing since 1959 Benjamin Ferguson, 2025-08-28 This book digs into environmental themes in Alaska travel writing since U S statehood in 1959 drawing on the works of six authors including Barry Lopez Jonathan Raban Tom Lowenstein and others Each work though disparate in style advocates for the empowerment of the Alaska Native people by connecting not only with diverse perspectives but with the lived realities in the geographical spaces that have formed them In analyzing how these authors have succeeded in depicting the realities of alterities and where they have perhaps fallen short by more recent standards we may begin to carve out a system of ethics This is important as fresh waves of travel writers search for their own place in the environmental conversations surrounding the ever evolving 21st century Arctic and its place on the front lines of a changing climate
