Rigoberta Menchú Controversy:

The Rigoberta Menchú Controversy Arturo Arias, David Stoll, 2001 Guatemalan indigenous rights activist Rigoberta Menchú first came to international prominence following the 1983 publication of her memoir I Rigoberta Menchú which chronicled in compelling detail the violence and misery that she and her people suffered during her country's brutal civil war. The book focused world attention on Guatemala and led to her being awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1992. In 1999 a book by David Stoll challenged the veracity of key details in Menchú's account generating a storm of controversy. Journalists and scholars squared off regarding whether Menchú had lied about her past and if so what that would mean about the larger truths revealed in her book. In The Rigoberta Menchú Controversy Arturo Arias has assembled a casebook that offers a balanced perspective on the debate. The first section of this volume collects the primary documents: newspaper articles, interviews, and official statements in which the debate raged, many translated into English for the first time. In the second section a distinguished group of international scholars assesses the political, historical, and cultural contexts of the debate and considers its implications for such issues as the culture wars, historical truth, and the politics of memory. Also included is a new essay by David Stoll in which he responds to his critics.

Women Nobel Peace Prize Winners, 2d ed. Anita Price Davis, Marla J. Selvidge, 2015-12-01 From the first woman Nobel Peace Prize recipient Bertha von Suttner 1905 to the latest and youngest female Nobel laureate Malala Yousafzai 2014, this book in its second edition provides a detailed look at the lives and accomplishments of each of these sixteen Prize winners. They did not expect recognition or fame for their work: economist Emily Greene Balch 1946 was surprised to learn that anyone knew about her. But they did not work in isolation; all met with discouragement, derision, threats, or in Yousafzai's case, attempted murder and exile. A history of the Prize and a biographical sketch of Alfred Nobel are included.

Große Frauen und was sie bewegten Bernhard Grom, 2016-03-14 Eine Mystikerin und Anarchistin zugleich, eine Adelige im Widerstand gegen Hitler, Ordensschwester, die mit den Mitleidenden in Kairo, mit den Lepra-Kranken in Pakistan und den Sterbenden in Kalkutta leben, eine Nonne, die sich leidenschaftlich für die Prostituierten einsetzt, eine Analphabetin, die den Friedensnobelpreis bekommt: es sind schon erstaunliche Karrieren, die der Autor uns hier in lebendigen Porträts vorstellt. Wie zur Zeit Jesu sind es offenbar die Frauen, die schneller begreifen, was Nachfolge heißt.

The Ethics of Life Writing Paul John Eakin, 2004 Our lives are increasingly on display in public, but the ethical issues involved in presenting such revelations remain largely unexamined. How can life writing do good, and how can it cause harm? The eleven essays here explore such questions.

The Decline and Fall of the Lettered City Jean Franco, 2002-06-24 The cultural Cold War in Latin America was waged as a war of values. This book charts the conflicting universals of this period: the clash between avant-garde and political vanguard.

Women Who Changed the World Candice Goucher, 2022-01-24 This indispensable reference work provides readers with the tools to reimagine world history through the lens of women's lived experiences. Learning how women changed the world will change the ways the world looks.

at the past Women Who Changed the World Their Lives Challenges and Accomplishments through History features 200 biographies of notable women and offers readers an opportunity to explore the global past from a gendered perspective The women featured in this four volume set cover the full sweep of history from our ancestral forbearer Lucy to today's tennis phenoms Venus and Serena Williams Every walk of life is represented in these pages from powerful monarchs and politicians to talented artists and writers from inquisitive scientists to outspoken activists Each biography follows a standardized format recounting the woman's life and accomplishments discussing the challenges she faced within her particular time and place in history and exploring the lasting legacy she left A chronological listing of biographies makes it easy for readers to zero in on particular time periods while a further reading list at the end of each essay serves as a gateway to further exploration and study High interest sidebars accompany many of the biographies offering more nuanced glimpses into the lives of these fascinating women

Lateinamerika Analysen, 2004      Partners in Peace Mathijs van Leeuwen, 2009 How do international organizations support local peacebuilding Do they really understand conflict Framing the debate using case studies from Africa and Central America Partners in Peace challenges the global perceptions and assumptions of the roles played by civil society in peacebuilding and offers a radically new perspective on how international organizations can support such efforts

Missing God? John K. Downey, Jürgen Manemann, Steven T. Ostovich, 2006 Domination objectification and control seem to be emerging as the virtues of our time Yet they also seem to misfire in frustration violence and resignation The human voice has shrunk to a whisper drowned out in the cacophony of consumerism competition egoism and fear Are we missing God Both the question and its answers are ambiguous God may be missed in different ways Missing God may be a matter of our missing the signs of God's presence in the world Talk about God and theology have been marginalized as relics of the past Missing God may refer to our often hidden and sometimes misdirected longing for God The new political theology derived from the work of Johann Baptist Metz offers a response to our missing God It does this as an anamnestic and eschatological resistance to forgetting grounded in a memoria passionis responding to others suffering Metz's model of critical understanding sublates the modern variations on the dichotomy of reason and faith and provides an antidote to our cultural amnesia in the mystical political double structure of faith A political theology takes its shape only when it engages the issues of the times The essays in this volume are by political theologians and others influenced by Johann Baptist Metz They sharpen the questions and imperatives which mark political theology today In addition this collection testifies to the dynamic continuity of political theology in its German roots and North American developments

Geschichte in Wissenschaft und Unterricht, 2001      Teaching History, 2004      Yalálag is No Longer Just Yalálag Lourdes Gutiérrez Nájera, 2007      Harvard Human Rights Journal, 2002      Hispanic Literature Criticism: Guimarães Rosa-Viramontes Susan Salas, 1999      Biography, 2001      MultiCultural Review, 2001      The International Politics of Post-Conflict Reconstruction in Guatemala Nicola Short, 2007-12-15 This book looks at the Guatemalan peace process which was successful in providing a development program to modernize the economy and national infrastructure with the support of international organizations and negotiating parties Short draws on the political theory of Antonio Gramsci to analyze the extent to which peace processes offer opportunity for progressive social transformation      Woman as Witness Linda S. Maier, Isabel Dulfano, 2004 Testimonial narrative is considered to be both a constant in Latin American literature as well as one of the most prominent features of the post boom writing of the 1980s and 1990s women have successfully assimilated this form and currently dominate the testimonial genre in Latin America The essays in this volume provide an orientation to the woman centered view of this genre by inquiring into the critical and theoretical debate on the subject as well as analyzing specific nineteenth and twentieth century Latin American women s testimonial texts Woman as Witness also includes selections from two testimonial works by Argentine women to advance the creation of a canon of Latin American feminist testimonial      Toward an Ethics of Reading Shireen Rusi Kaikhusroo Patell, 2001      El intelectual y el sujeto testimonial en la literatura latinoamericana Joaquín Maldonado Class, 2008
