Sexuality And The Politics Of Ethos In The Writing Classroom:

Sexuality and the Politics of Ethos in the Writing Classroom Zan Meyer Goncalves, 2006-01-04 Applying the complexities of literacy development and personal ethos to the teaching of composition Zan Meyer Goncalves challenges writing teachers to consider ethos as a series of identity performances shaped by the often inequitable social contexts of their classrooms and communities Using the rhetorical experiences of students who identify as lesbian gay bisexual and or transgender she proposes a new way of thinking about ethos that addresses the challenges of social justice identity and transfer issues in the classroom Goncalves offers an innovative approach to teaching identity performance theory bound by social contexts She applies this new approach to theories of specificity and intersectionality illustrating how teachers can help students redefine the relationship between their social identities and their writing She also addresses bringing social activism and identity politics into the classroom helping writers make transfers across rhetorical contexts and linking students interests to public conversations Theoretical and practical Sexuality and the Politics of Ethos in the Writing Classroom provides teachers of first year and advanced composition studies with useful detailed assignments based in specific identity performance Goncalves offers techniques to subvert oppressive language practices while encouraging students to recognize themselves as writers citizens and active participants in their own educations and communities

Sexual Rhetorics Jonathan Alexander, Jacqueline Rhodes, 2015-10-16 Sexual rhetoric is the self conscious and critical engagement with discourses of sexuality that exposes both their naturalization and their queering their torquing to create different or counter discourses giving voice and agency to multiple and complex sexual experiences This volume explores the intersection of rhetoric and sexuality through the varieties of methods available in the fields of rhetoric and writing studies including case studies theoretical questioning ethnographies or close and distant readings of texts that help us think through the rhetorical force of sexuality and the sexual force of rhetoric Befriending the Queer Nineteenth Century Michael Borgstrom, 2020-12-14 Befriending the Queer Nineteenth Century Curious Attachments addresses a longstanding question in literary and cultural studies how can a case be made for the ongoing value of the humanities without an articulation of that field s social effects In response this book examines how readers befriend works of literature overtures that are based in a curiosity about the world that help those readers to appreciate the world anew As an instance of this dynamic it examines how the contemporary social interest in queerness can be contextualized through encounters with texts produced during an earlier era of queer flux the U S nineteenth century The book offers first hand accounts of such meetings weaving within its analysis reports on readers engagements with literature and the consequences of those connections It frames such dynamics as central to a new politics or to finding a vocabulary for a familiar politics that has not received its due Rethinking Ethos Kathleen J. Ryan, Nancy Myers, Rebecca Jones, 2016-06-03 Labels traditionally ascribed to women mother angel of the house whore or bitch suggest character traits that do not encompass the complexities of women s identities or empower women s public speaking Rethinking Ethos A Feminist Ecological Approach to Rhetoric redefines the concept of ethos classically thought of as character or credibility as ecological and feminist negotiated and renegotiated and implicated in shifting power dynamics Building on previous feminist and rhetorical scholarship this essay collection presents a sustained discussion of the unique methods by which women s ethos is constructed and transformed Editors Kathleen J Ryan Nancy Myers and Rebecca Jones identify three rhetorical maneuvers that characterize ethos in the feminist ecological imaginary ethe as interruption interrupting ethe as advocacy advocating and ethe as relation relating Each section of the book explores one of these rhetorical maneuvers An afterword gathers contributors thoughts on the collection s potential impact and influence possibilities for future scholarship and the future of feminist rhetorical studies With its rich mix of historical examples and contemporary case studies Rethinking Ethos offers a range of new perspectives including queer theory transnational approaches radical feminism Chicana feminism and indigenous points of view from which to consider a feminist approach to ethos

Fashioning Lives Eric Darnell Pritchard, 2016-11 Fashioning Lives combines analysis of archival documents literature and film with the experiences of contemporary Black Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender and Queer LGBTQ individuals to demonstrate the usefulness of literacy as a historical and sociological lens for examining black queer cultural production and consumption In addition Eric Darnell Pritchard provides a theoretical framework for future analysis of the intersections of race and queerness in literacy composition and rhetoric

Literacy, Sexuality, Pedagogy Jonathan Alexander, 2008-03-15 Despite its centrality to much of contemporary personal and public discourse sexuality remains infrequently discussed in most composition courses and in our discipline at large Moreover its complicated relationship to discourse to the very languages we use to describe and define our worlds is woefully understudied in our discipline Discourse about sexuality and the discourse of sexuality surround us circulating in the news media on the Web in conversations and in the very languages we use to articulate our interactions with others and our understanding of ourselves It forms a core set of complex discourses through which we approach make sense of and construct a variety of meanings politics and identities In Literacy Sexuality Pedagogy Jonathan Alexander argues for the development of students sexual literacy Such a literacy is not just concerned with developing fluency with sexuality as a hot topic but with understanding the intimate interconnectedness of sexuality and literacy in Western culture Using the work of scholars in queer theory sexuality studies and the New Literacy Studies Alexander unpacks what he sees as a crucial if often overlooked dimension of literacy the fundamental ways in which sexuality has become a key component of contemporary literate practice of the stories we tell about ourselves our communities and our political investments Alexander then demonstrates through a series of composition exercises and writing assignments how we might develop students understanding of sexual literacy Examining discourses of gender heterosexuality and marriage allows students and instructors a critical opportunity to see how the languages we use to describe ourselves and our communities are saturated with ideologies of sexuality Understanding how sexuality is constructed and deployed as a way to make meaning in our culture gives us a critical tool both to understand some of the fundamental ways in which we know ourselves and to challenge some of the norms that govern our lives In the process we become more fluent with the stories that we tell about ourselves and discover how normative notions of sexuality enable and constrain narrations of identity culture and politics Such develops not only our understanding of sexuality but of literacy as we explore how sexuality is a vital if vexing part of the story of who we are
