Shakespeare's Tercentenary Monika Smialkowska, 2023-12-21 The worldwide commemorations of the three hundredth anniversary of Shakespeare's death were held amid the global upheaval of the First World War As empires battled for world domination and nations sought self determination diverse communities vied to claim Shakespeare as their own to underpin their sense of collective identity and cohesion Unearthing previously unknown Tercentenary events in Europe the British Empire and the USA Monika Smialkowska demonstrates that the 1916 Shakespeare commemorators did not speak with one unified voice Tributes by marginalised social ethnic and racial groups often challenged the homogenising narratives of the official celebrations Rather than the traditionally patriotic Bard used to support totalising versions of national or imperial identity this study reveals Shakespeare as a site of debate and contestation in which diverse voices local and global nationalist and universalist militant and pacifist combined and clashed in a fascinating open ended dialogue

Shakespeare's Rise to Cultural Prominence Emma Depledge, 2018-07-26 Shakespeare's rise to prominence was by no means inevitable While he was popular in his lifetime the number of new editions and revivals of his plays declined over the following decades Emma Depledge uses the methodologies of book and theatre history to provide a re assessment of the reputation and dissemination of Shakespeare during the Interregnum and Restoration She demonstrates the crucial role of the Exclusion Crisis 1678 1682 a political crisis over the royal succession as a foundational moment in Shakespeare's canonisation The period saw a sudden surge of theatrical alterations and a significantly increased rate of new editions and stage revivals In the wake of the Exclusion Crisis Shakespeare's plays were made available on a scale not witnessed since the early seventeenth century thus
