Secret Historian Justin Spring, 2010-08-17 2010 National Book Award Finalist for Nonfiction Drawn from the secret never before seen diaries journals and sexual records of the novelist poet and university professor Samuel M Steward Secret Historian is a sensational reconstruction of one of the more extraordinary hidden lives of the twentieth century An intimate friend of Gertrude Stein Alice B Toklas and Thornton Wilder Steward maintained a secret sex life from childhood on and documented these experiences in brilliantly vivid and often very funny detail After leaving the world of academe to become Phil Sparrow a tattoo artist on Chicago's notorious South State Street Steward worked closely with Alfred Kinsey on his landmark sex research During the early 1960s Steward changed his name and identity once again this time to write exceptionally literate upbeat pro homosexual pornography under the name of Phil Andros Until today he has been known only as Phil Sparrow but an extraordinary archive of his papers lost since his death in 1993 has provided Justin Spring with the material for an exceptionally compassionate and brilliantly illuminating life and times biography More than merely the story of one remarkable man Justin Spring's Secret Historian is a moving portrait of homosexual life long before Stonewall and gay liberation Small Press Record of Books in Print ,1990 The Time of AIDS Gilbert Herdt, Shirley Lindenbaum,1992-01-29 The widespread tragedy of the AIDS epidemic is forcing social scientists to change the way they think about and study subgroups within the majority culture How is the concept of culture relevant to the study of AIDS How can social science methods be used to uncover the epidemiology of this deadly disease And how can social scientists deploy what they learn to help solve the problems posed by AIDS The Time of AIDS explores and provides provocative insights on these three critical issues By examining research conducted with various cultural groups and in different countries the authors offer insight on how to identify the distinct way different communities respond to the threat of this disease These studies demonstrate that a single theory and method will not capture the importance of the AIDS epidemic but a close look at the culture and psychology of a society can inspire more effective ways of education intervention and arrest of the transmission of the virus Researchers and practitioners in anthropology psychology sociology and nursing will benefit from this enlightening volume Flesh Winston Leyland,1982 True Homosexual Experiences from S T H Volume 2 A re issue of the gay classic in the famous S T H series Men write with no holds barred about their most intimate sexual experiences Puts the sex back into homosexuality Sexed Texts Paul Baker,2008-07 Sexed Texts explores the complex role that language plays in the construction of sexuality and gender two concepts that are often discussed separately although in practice are closely intertwined The book draws on a range of theoretical perspectives and published research including performativity theory feminism queer studies psychoanalytical theory Marxism social constructionism and essentialism Illustrative examples are taken from written spoken internet non verbal visual media scripted and naturally occurring texts Some of the questions addressed in the book include how do people construct their own and other's gendered or sexual identities through the use of language What is the relationship between language and desire In what ways do language practices help to reflect and shape different gendered sexed discourses as normal problematic or contested Taking a broadly deconstructionist perspective the book progresses from examining what are seen as preferable or acceptable ways to express gender and sexuality moving towards more tolerated identities practices and desires and finally arriving at marginalized and tabooed forms The book locates sexuality and gender as socially constructed and therefore examines language use in terms of socio historical factors linking changing conceptualisations of identity discourse and desire to theories surrounding regulation globalisation new technologies marketisation and consumerism Medical and Health Care Books and Serials in Print ,1997 Uniform Trade List Annual ,1977 Mythomania Bernard Welt,1996 Contributions by Bernard Welt AB Bookman's Yearbook ,1985 Materijali za istorijata na Makedonija ,1982 Medical Books and Serials in Print ,1984
