Transformations of Labour through the Lens of Sex Work Iztok Šori, Majda Hrženjak, 2025-12-10 This volume engages with the question of how labour is transforming under late capitalism and what insights the study of sex work offers into these transformations Presenting case studies from the Global North this book situates sex work within the frameworks of neoliberal governance digitalization platformization and gig economy to examine how economic relations labour practices and activism are changing under these conditions It demonstrates that sex work offers a powerful lens through which to understand the contradictions of contemporary labour regimes autonomy bound up with precarity visibility with surveillance and agency with algorithmic control The book highlights the mobility and agency of labouring subjectivities showing how resistance often emerges through strategic engagement with the very structures produced by neoliberalism While affirming the importance of legal recognition of sex work the book contends that this alone is insufficient to disrupt the broader systems of exclusion and inequality experienced by sex workers and embedded in late capitalist economies This book will be of interest to scholars and advanced readers engaged in debates on labour sexuality and political economy It is particularly relevant to those working in critical labour studies feminist theory sociology and socio legal research as well as to policymakers and activists concerned with labour rights and social justice

Producing the Acceptable Sex Worker Gwyn Easterbrook-Smith, 2022-02-25 Producing the Acceptable Sex Worker considers how sex work is produced in news media narratives a site where much of the general public draws its understanding of the industry in the absence of lived interaction with it Taking New Zealand as a case study this book considers an emerging discourse of acceptability for some sex workers primarily those who do low volume indoor work Their acceptability is established in comparison with other kinds of sex workers resulting in a redistribution but not a reduction of stigma The conditions attached to acceptability reflect persistent anxieties about sex work workers who are acceptable must give the impression that the sexual labour of the job is enjoyable and virtually indistinguishable from their personal life eliding the work involved Unacceptable workers have existing marginalisations magnified by their association with the industry with migrant sex workers produced as devious or exploited and transgender women s involvement with the industry used to deny them the right to public space The conditions attached to acceptability reveal how neoliberal discourses of choice desire authenticity and personal responsibility inform the formation of sex work in the public eye
