Sexual Politics In Indonesia:

Sexual Politics in Indonesia S. Wieringa, 2002-05-21 This book analyzes the interaction between nationalism feminism and socialism in Indonesia since the beginning of the twentieth century until the New Order State of President Suharto The focus is on the communist women s organization Gerwani which was by 1965 the largest communist women s organization in the non communist world Gerwani members combined feminist demands such as a reform of the marriage law with an insistence upon a political role for women The organization was destroyed in a campaign of sexual slander orchestrated by the military under General Suharto Hundreds of thousands of people were killed President Sukarno lost his power and General Suharto took over

Sex and Sexualities in Contemporary Indonesia

Linda Rae Bennett, Sharyn Graham Davies, 2014-12-05 Winner of the 2015 Ruth Benedict Prize for Outstanding Edited Volume Sex sexuality and sexual relationships are hotly debated in Indonesia triggering complex and often passionate responses This innovative volume explores these issues in a variety of ways It highlights historical and newer forms of sexual diversity as well as the social responses they provoke It critiques differing representations of sexuality pointing to the multiplicity of discourses within which sexuality and the sexual are understood in modern day Indonesia Placing sexuality centre stage and locating it within the specific historical context of the Reformasi era this landmark volume explores understandings and practices across a wide variety of sites focusing in on a diverse group of Indonesian actors and the contested meanings that sexuality carries Beginning with a substantive introduction and concluding with a scholarly reflection on key issues the volume is framed around the four themes of sexual politics health diversity and representations It seeks both to present new empirical findings as well as to add to existing theoretical analysis This work fills an important gap in our understanding of the evolution and contemporary dynamics of Indonesian sexualities It will be of interest to scholars and academics from disciplines including gender and sexuality studies global health sexual and reproductive health anthropology sociology and Asian studies

Politics in Contemporary Indonesia

Ken M.P Setiawan, Dirk Tomsa, 2022-03-28 In Politics in Contemporary Indonesia Ken M P Setiawan and Dirk Tomsa analyse the most prominent political ideas institutions interests and issues that shape Indonesian politics today Guided by the overarching question whether Indonesia still deserves its famous label as a model Muslim democracy the book argues that the most serious threats to Indonesian democracy emanate from the fading appeal of democracy as a compelling narrative the increasingly brazen capture of democratic institutions by predatory interests and the narrowing public space for those who seek to defend the values of democracy In so doing the book answers the following key questions What are the dominant political narratives that underpin Indonesian politics How has Indonesia s institutional framework evolved since the onset of democratisation in 1998 How do competing political interests weaken or strengthen Indonesian democracy How does declining democracy affect Indonesia s prospects for dealing with its main policy challenges How does Indonesia compare to other Muslim majority states and to its regional neighbours Up to date comprehensive and written in an accessible style this book will be of interest for both students and scholars of Indonesian politics Asian Studies Comparative Politics and International Relations The Birth of the New Order State in Indonesia Saskia Wieringa,2001 Inside Indonesia ,2002 Gender Equality and Diversity in Indonesia: Identifying Progress and Challenges Angie Bexley,Sarah Xue Dong,Diahhadi Setyonaluri,2023-11-29 Over the past 20 years gender relations and the expression of power and authority between men and women in Indonesia have been shaped by the forces of reformasi decentralisation a reassertion of central power and economic transitions These changes have given rise to policy reform an increase in women s political representation and new expressions of diverse gender identities But to what extent has the gender order of the New Order where women s role as a mother was the basis of citizenship been challenged or just found new articulations What shape do contemporary contestations to gendered power take The chapters in this volume bring gender to the centre stage and provide reflections on the political economic social and cultural progress and barriers in achieving gender equality and diversity in Indonesia The Contours of Mass Violence in Indonesia, 1965-68 Douglas Kammen,Katharine McGregor,2012-09-30 The violence directed against the political left in Indonesia from 1965 until 1968 has been the subject of intense speculation The large number of deaths and brutal interrogations as well as rape torture short and long term detention and on going discrimination inflicted on hundreds of thousands of people makes this a compelling topic However political sensitivities within Indonesia and a dearth of evidence made serious research on the topic extremely difficult under the New Order regime The Contours of Mass Violence in Indonesia presents case studies from diverse locations throughout the Indonesian archipelago The accounts revolve around the impact and interpretations of the September 30th Movement and its aftermath the roles of military and civilian groups in fomenting and perpetrating violence short and long term detention and the legacies of the assault on the political Left Although events unfolded differently in various parts of the country the violence amounted to a counter revolution intended to curtail the mass mobilization and popular participation unleashed by the national revolution some twenty years earlier The goal was to destroy the social bases of President Sukarno s left leaning Guided Democracy and to establish a military regime that was authoritarian and pro Western Students of Indonesia will learn much from the accounts in this volume but the discussion will also benefit scholars concerned with the dynamics of mass violence the Cold War regime change and counter revolution Women in Asia: Women and political power Louise P. Edwards,Mina Roces,2009 Volume III Health and Sexuality brings together the best and most influential scholarship on contentious themes such as the increasing imbalance in sex ratios in the region as a result of female infanticide sex selective abortions and the kidnapping of wives Research gathered in this volume also covers reproductive health violence against women e g female genital mutilation dowry burnings and honour killings same sex attraction and diverse gender identity and medicine and health care including work on traditional medicine and mental health problems specific to women in the region such as the high suicide rates in China and

South Asia The material collected in Volume IV Constructions of the Feminine focuses on women in the family e.g. gendered role expectations women in religion Western perceptions of Asian women e.g. stereotypes of passivity women in the arts and official discourses on the feminine such as the promotion by Asian governments of gender roles Women in Asia is fully indexed and each of the four volumes has a comprehensive introduction newly written by the editors which provides extended reading lists and places the material in its historical and intellectual context It is an essential work of reference and is destined to be valued by scholars and students as well as policy makers and community activists as a vital one stop research resource

Gender in the 21st Century Barbara Evelyn Bailey, Elsa Leo-Rhynie, 2004 For more than two decades feminist activists in the Caribbean have been researching teaching writing and collaborating with organisations and groups at all levels to improve the status of women and to protect and advance their rights This volume Gender in the 21st Century commemorates the pioneering work of feminists scholars and activists by reflecting on some of the major issues which have engaged them and influenced their scholarship and work since the early 1980s It also addresses issues at the cutting edge of Gender and Development Studies adopting a strong policy focus for treating current social and gender inequity Finally the volume looks to the future and speculates on the place of gender in the academy as well as its outreach and provides a unique opportunity to explore with highly respected and renowned scholars aspects of the present state of Gender Studies and prospects for the future of this dynamic area of scholarship

Indonesia in the Soeharto Years John H. McGlynn, Hermawan Sulisty, 2005

Journal of Women's History, 2003

Negotiating Women's Veiling Dewi Candraningrum, 2018-07-03 This study will focus on the Indonesian jilbab an ubiquitous piece of cloth that covers the hair and neck of women tightly leaving no skin unconcealed Achievement and role of jilbab after the authoritarian regime of Soeharto in 1998 is hardly known The author examines women perception but also the Sharia Ordinances and the narratives of censorship Voices of both women and sexual minorities transgenders gays lesbians bisexuals and queers finally demonstrate awareness of the politics of representation in contemporary Indonesia highlighting the links between religion politics and identity

Women Resist Globalization Sheila Rowbotham, Stephanie Linkogle, 2001 Opening with an historical account of differing facets of women's action for emancipation this book goes on to look at more recent examples of diverse resistance women fighting for environmental and reproductive rights mobilizing against poverty and racism fighting the inequalities imposed by structural adjustment programmes and campaigning for human rights

The Discrepancy Between the Public and the Private Selves of Indonesian Women Soe Tjen Marching, 2007 This study investigates public and private representations of identities of Indonesian women in the New Order period 1967-1998 in the form of published autobiographies and unpublished diaries collected during fieldwork During the New Order era the government tried to indoctrinate conservative ideas about gender using various media While autobiographies published in New Order Indonesia did not have the freedom to challenge the authoritative eye those women who produced such works are still perceived as exerting their individuality and criticizing however indirectly the social conditions surrounding them In the unpublished diaries considered although the authors are more vocal in their dissension nevertheless one discovers the reflection of patriarchal values in Indonesia Fantasizing the Feminine in Indonesia Laurie Jo Sears,1996 Presenting dialogues between prominent scholars of and from Indonesia and Indonesian women working in professional activist religious and literary domains the book dissolves essentialist notions of women and Indonesia that have arisen out of the tensions of empire

Gender Politics in Post-communist Eurasia

Linda Racioppi,Katherine O'Sullivan See,2009 Reflecting on two decades of experience Gender Politics in Post Communist Eurasia offers new and important insights into contemporary global gender politics by leading scholars from Central Asia Europe and the United States into the contemporary dynamics of gender politics in a critical area of the world The volume includes case studies of Romania Russia and Tajikistan comparative analyses of Azerbaijan Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan and regional examinations of Eastern and Central Europe and Central Asia The interdisciplinary contributions focus on issues such as the influence of global and regional norms on women s rights the impact of international political economy on women s social and economic positions and the implications of international and regional migration and human trafficking for women s lives Gender Politics in Post Communist Eurasia provides wide ranging analyses that capture the distinctiveness of specific countries and regions while illuminating the interplay between the local and the global in gender politics
