Lowes Tricks Returns:

Women, Madness, and Spiritualism: Georgina Weldon and Louisa Lowe Roy Porter, Helen Nicholson, Bridget Bennett, 2003 This set reproduces seminal writings by three exceptional nineteenth century women Georgina Weldon Louisa Lowe and Susan Willis Fletcher were certified as insane by the Victorian medical establishment and were threatened with incarceration for their eccentric and transgressive behaviour All three were remarkably resourceful and very successfully manipulated the sensationalist press to expose the lunacy laws to the late Victorian public In doing this they contributed to the emerging feminist critique of medicine and science Each volume is devoted to the work of one of these exceptional women New introductions by the editors and the late Roy Porter provide context and discussion of the pieces included pointing to the themes and issues that they raise With an extensive index this collection provides an invaluable resource for those studying the role of feminism in the history of medicine and the power of the medical profession in the Victorian era
