Tourism can take many different forms and types but increasingly it is viewed as one of the most innovative industries This book showcases the innovations in tourism through a creativity sustainability and technology perspective Tourism Innovation Technology Sustainability and Creativity addresses the growing use and importance of tourism innovation in society Readers of this book will gain a global perspective on how the tourism industry is changing and taking advantage of emerging technologies which will help them to foresee potential changes in the industry and plan for the future Tourism innovation is defined as innovating in a cost efficient manner by taking into account the available resources Most of the focus on tourism innovation has been on developing countries but it is also used by companies in other locations This book explores the way in which tourism innovation differs from other types of innovation and offers a creative solution to issues about sustainability and the circular economy In this vein it includes chapters addressing issues related to the following but not limited subjects co creation in innovation social issues in innovation leadership and innovation forms of innovation government innovation and innovation research This book is suitable for tourism industry professionals researchers and policy experts who are interested in how innovation is embedded in the tourism industry Tourism and Spatial Transformations Gregory John Ashworth,A. G. J. Dietvorst,1995 While there is a considerable amount of recent literature on recreation and tourism as activities there is little that provides a comprehensive review and analysis of intervention or planning in this sector Tourism and recreation include a wide variety of activities occurring within a wide range of environments and spatial scales The purpose of this book is to examine this transformation of space and draw out the implications for tourism policy and planning The editors present a general model of transformation as a guide to intervention and this is followed by 18 chapters divided into four parts The first focuses on the producers and includes case studies from the Spanish coast French mountains and Northern Thailand The second considers the management of the tourism product with examples from the Amsterdam waterfront development and holiday villages in Northern Europe The third section is concerned with consumers as managers of the transformation process drawing on information from nature based tourism sports tourism and festival events The final part provides a more holistic model of the planning of recreation and tourism Canadian Family Physician ,1985
