Practicing Passion Youth And The Quest For A Passionate Church:

Practicing Passion Kenda Creasy Dean, 2004-04-26 Every stage of life brings out certain human characteristics and according to Kenda Creasy Dean adolescence is particularly characterized by passion If the church is to speak meaningfully to youth and in turn reap the many benefits that young people have to offer then its ministry must be predicated on passion the Passion of Christ the passion of youth and the passionate faith that results when these two things come together The uniqueness of Practicing Passion lies in its relocating youth ministry in practical theology rather than in educational theory or psychological or social development While youth ministry has routinely capitalized on the passions of adolescents little attention has been given to the theological mooring that youth need to connect with the church and hold firm amid the growing demands of popular culture Focusing on the theological resonance between the Passion of Christ and adolescents experience of passion Dean develops a framework for youth ministry that draws on the historic practices of the Christian community as a curriculum of passion Offering a compelling new model for reaching discipling and empowering today's young adults Practicing Passion is a vital resource for anyone already engaged in or preparing for youth ministry Youth

Beyond the Developmental Lens Wesley W. Ellis, 2024-01-23 What happens when we stop thinking of young people as projects and recognize them for who they are here and now Wesley Ellis exposes the insidious impact of developmental psychology upon youth ministry and practice arguing instead for a theological anthropology of youth that can help us see all people including adolescents as uniquely created in the image of God Propelled by the conviction that ministry requires us to see youth as beings rather than becomings Ellis demonstrates how we can reorient our vision toward ministry that prioritizes relationship and inclusion over rigid developmental frameworks A veteran youth minister across multiple denominations Ellis knows his subject deeply as both practitioner and theologian Youth beyond the Developmental Lens mines personal accounts the biblical narrative and a vast array of theological expertise to release readers from restrictive assumptions that have long bound youth ministry Ellis's finely tuned pastoral sensibilities bring all these elements into focus helping us understand ministry as relational and all humans as part of God's story Rostered ministers lay leaders and others engaged with youth will find an antidote to anxiety about the future of the church Ellis reminds us that God is here already Our call is simply to be

Worship with Teenagers Eric L. Mathis, 2022-02-15 This book addresses the vital role of public Christian worship in adolescent spiritual formation and shows how important youth ministry and worship ministry are to each other Despite numerous research projects books articles and resources that have been published about teenagers and about worship in recent years the relationship between the two has been addressed only peripherally if not altogether overlooked Drawing on his extensive experience in worship ministry and youth ministry Eric Mathis offers insights into the worship practices of teenagers corrects common misperceptions about worship and critically examines four prominent worship models in current practice Mathis invites youth pastors worship leaders ministerial students and congregations to elevate the voices of young people in the worshiping community and enhance worship for all ages The book includes a foreword by Kenda Creasy Dean

Practicing Baptism Bård Eirik Hallesby Norheim, 2014-02-19 Where is Jesus Christ This fundamental question is the starting point of this book which investigates the shape of Christian life and ministry in a post Christendom context Over the last decades there has been a shift in much of Western theology towards focusing on Christian practices in ministry and theological education This may be seen as a way to deal with theological anxiety in an era of heightened personal autonomy In Practicing Baptism Bard Norheim critically analyzes the engagement in Christian practices As a response to this engagement Norheim develops a missional and diaconal theology for ministry focusing on the presence of Christ in Christian practices Fundamentally this is an attempt to answer a pressing question for today What do Christians do Norheim draws on Martin Luther s theology and his notion of the three modes of Christ s presence the present tense of baptism and Luther s idea of the marks of the church Based on this reading of Luther s theology Norheim suggests that Christian life and ministry could be interpreted through the concept practicing baptism

Helping Youth Grieve Bob Yoder, 2015-04-21 Suicide depression eating disorders and other mental health illnesses have dramatically increased among adolescents in recent decades Our American culture demands high levels of success and propagates a feel good attitude that denies pain loss and failure Churches contribute to these distressing realities among youth Our theology associates being happy with true faithfulness to God overemphasizing praise and thanksgiving while neglecting lament even though lament comprises the largest number of Psalms There is much good in the lives of today's adolescents but there is also much grief and woundedness Helping Youth Grieve exposes the warped view of God modeled and taught to our young people This book portrays a God who yearns to hear the honest cries of our youth even when that involves blaming God Spiritual caregivers will discover good news in biblical lament for its role in pastoral care and faith formation of adolescents

Faith Generation Nick Shepherd, 2016-08-18 The recent Church Growth Research see www.churchgrowthresearch.org.uk identifies that the successful transmission of faith to children and young people is a key factor in stemming decline and promoting growth This book explores the cultural and theological reasons as to why this is the case and makes research based recommendations for the faith formation of children and young people The central argument is that church communities need to engage in deliberate strategies that help foster intentional Christian Communities within which children and young people can form and sustain Christian identity

Children's Voices Annemie Dillen, Didier Pollefeyt, 2010 This book deals with themes concerning religious education and the spirituality of children Throughout the seventeen chapters the book stimulates a scholarly discussion about children and theology The book makes clear that classical Christian theology can benefit from taking seriously children's voices and reflections about children The volume demonstrates how nuanced and interdisciplinary reflections can be relevant for Christian and social practices of adults with children and how these practices can influence theology This volume asks the following questions Why is it important that we hear the voices of children and what does this mean for how we treat children and relate to them What do the voices of children express How do children experience society and in particular religion and what do they have to say about it What do the voices of children mean for theology ethics and religious education In what way can our theology change when we see reality from the perspective of children This book consists of five parts In the first part the reader receives an overview of the current challenges concerning children and spirituality The two chapters of this part offer an introduction to contemporary thinking about children theology and spirituality and the place of children s voices within this scope The second part refers to biblical sources for contemporary theological reflection on children The third part contains pedagogical and ethical reflections on children as well as a view from practical theology about children in the world and the responsibility of churches This third part looks mainly at children in relation to society both in the past and in the present The fourth part focuses on children living in the family which is seen as a domestic church The fifth part takes up the theme of children s spirituality again showing children s own spiritual reflection and ways of theologizing with children in church and family contexts by communication literature and all forms of religious education and or catechesis

Ellis,Justin Forbes,Abigail Visco Rusert,2020-04-28 What would youth ministry look like if it were based on a pursuit of authentic Christian joy Joy is not often a word young people associate with church but it should be By reimagining three common practices in youth ministry through the theological lens of joy veteran youth workers Kenda Creasy Dean Wesley Ellis Justin Forbes and Abigail Visco Rusert demonstrate how to shift this association and become more honest about what youth ministry can and can t do to support young people and their faith Grounding youth ministry in joy rather than in fear also models a way forward for the church It reminds us that youth ministry is not a tool for anxious congregations to use to ensure their survival Rather youth ministry like all ministry is a way to help people name and experience God s delight free from fear and anxiety about their futures Delighted is the first book to emerge from the Yale Center for Faith and Culture s Adolescent Faith and Flourishing project offering a sustained reflection on joy s practical importance for youth ministry With reflection questions offered at the end of each chapter Delighted is easy for youth ministers volunteers and pastors to pick up and use immediately tapping into young people s instinctive desire for joy for the entire church as well as for ministry with teenagers Almost Christian Kenda Creasy Dean,2010-07-16 The National Study of Youth and Religion asserts that instead of consequential faith most American teenagers practice Moralistic Therapeutic Deism a superficial low commitment self serving spirituality that seems to characterize many American churches Dean believes that churches must recover a missional mindset the conviction that we are not here for ourselves and that consequential faith begins by helping teenagers parents and congregations reclaim de centering practices like translation testimony and spiritual detachment what the mystics called the ability to focus on God and others instead of ourselves Drawing on a major national study this volume argues that the Church has failed to instill genuine religious passion in American teenagers Awakening Youth

Discipleship Brian J. Mahan, Michael Warren, David F. White, 2008 Youth ministry has increasingly lost touch with its origins in the way of Jesus and the social practices intrinsic to Christian discipleship and has instead substituted layers of Jesus talk middle class values fun and games and doses of warm fellow feeling Awakening Youth Discipleship articulates the history of this domestication of youth and ministry Mahan Warren and White tell a story of the ways in which our society has colluded to shape a domesticated adolescence The authors believe a Christian response to this challenge must be multilevel addressing the problem at three levels society church and individual The authors propose reclaiming practices of discernment that both engage congregations in social awareness and involve individuals in discerning fuller vocational opportunities than those allowed by popular cultural norms Awakening Youth Discipleship is a terrific troublesome hopeful book offered with characteristic thoughtfulness by three prophets in our midst Drawing from decades of teaching and research in youth ministry Brian Mahan Michael Warren and David White make a provocative case for youth ministry that practices as Daniel Berrigan puts it the upside down hermeneutics of Jesus Christ Awakening Youth Discipleship topples many of youth ministry's most sacred cows and offers strategies that help young people and the rest of us resist the deformative power of consumerism These views are seldom voiced in youth ministry but our ability to reflect Christ to and with young people absolutely depends upon hearing them Kenda Creasy Dean Associate Professor of Youth Church and Culture at Princeton Theological Seminary and author of Practicing Passion Youth and the Quest for a Passionate Church Eerdmans and Youth and the Church of Benign Whatevism Oxford Brian Mahan Mike Warren and David White invite us to engage in an increasingly rare and dangerous spiritual practice thinking Why do we define teenagers by what they consume Why does youth ministry feel like a finishing school for the middle class Who profits from keeping teenagers nice Where would Jesus shop Like Jesus the authors walk us up the steps of the sacred temples tune our ears to the clink of the money changers and then show us how easily the tables are flipped Awakening Youth Discipleship is a necessary read if youth workers are going to expose the sanctified greed passionate advertising and soulful materialism that keeps all of us young and old from entering the freedom of Jesus Mark Yaconelli author of Contemplative Youth Ministry Brian David and Michael have given us a real gift a pearl of great price As a father a teacher and a consultant I only wish I had this book years earlier If as Rahner said the church of this century would be a church of mystics these three guides prove that they are the right people to help us navigate the culture tricks so that we're mindful of pouring new wine into new wineskins This book is a significant contribution for all interested in formation Christian discipleship and everyday life This book is also a great read It made me smile often Michael J Downey Australian Youth Minister author of Digging Deep Fostering the Spirituality of Young Men For those of us in youth ministry this book offers a mirror of sorts And as with any good mirror it offers us an opportunity for reflection To be honest if you read it carefully and with an open mind you will probably be forced to see some facets of the current youth ministry identity that aren't very flattering They write honestly thoughtfully and without condescension but in these straightforward essays I heard the sounds of some sacred cows being butchered the tough questions of a thorough Cross examination yeah that Cross and what I believe were the sounds of my chair as I squirmed a bit The writer of Proverbs reminds us that Faithful are the woun
