Prayers Of The Women Mystics:

Praying with the Women Mystics Mary T. Malone, 2006 These prayer poems were written in an attempt to make the writings of Christian women most but not all of them mystics accessible to the contemporary believing community and to women in particular The poems are placed in contemporary setting using contemporary language and sometimes addressing contemporary issues in an effort to communicate the radical nature of the writing of the women mystics Each poem is rooted in these mystical themes and is liberally sprinkled with words and phrases from the named woman mystic BOOK JACKET

Praying with the Women Mystics Mary T. Maline, 2007-03-01 The Heart of Love Brian Pickett, 1991 Prayers of Hroswith Hildegard of Bingen Elisabeth of Sch nau Mechthild of Hackeborn Gertrude the Great Mechthild of Magdeburg Margaret Ebner Elisabeth Staeglin and Dorothea of Montau together with short biographical sketches Women Mystics Confront the Modern World Marie-Florine Bruneau, 1998-01-29 Women Mystics Confront the Modern World situates the female mystical tradition within the context of the epistemological shift which affected religious sentiments and the perception of the self at the dawn of the modern world Anchored in a comprehensive knowledge of the religious history of seventeenth century France this book offers a vivid account of the fascinating lives and work of two exceptional women Marie de l Incarnation 1599 1672 and Madame Guyon 1648 1717 continue a literary and spiritual tradition that had begun in the thirteenth century Yet because they were at a crucial point in the history of Western mysticism when this movement was at once at its apogee and in the first stages of decline their writings show indications of a changing mentality These transformations shed light on the social significance of female mysticism in the Western tradition The opportunities the two women seized or shunned highlight their maneuvering for validation and autonomy But their choices also highlight many contradictions compromises and limits imposed upon their self expression At the confluence of French and American scholarship on mysticism this work joins these two schools of thought by introducing gender as a viable category of inquiry into the one and by tempering the overly optimistic interpretation of female mysticism of the other Communion with the Friends of God Jane McAvoy, 2001 Ideal for use at the communion table or for personal devotions the meditations and prayers that make up this collection are inspired by the lives and writings of six medieval women mystics Julian of Norwich Mechthild of Magdeburg Hildegard of Bingen Margery Kempe Hadewijch of Brabant and Catherine of Siena Through their lives and writings we can share in communion as an experience of God s saving grace and we can celebrate that grace in Christ Refreshing Water from Ancient Wells Mary Penrose, 2004 This collection of spiritual readings celebrates the genius of the women of the Church from the early Christian centuries to the present The editor sister Mary E Penrose has selected excerpted passages from Church Mothers whose wisdom has been heralded or heretofore neglected The selection includes readings of Hadewijch Hildegard of Bingen Catharine of Siena Teresa of Avila Julian of Norwich Mechtild of Magdeburg Dhuoda Aemiliana Proba Syncletica Leoba Ruhm Designed to deliver short drinks for use in daily reflection or prayer services and liturgies each passage is offered one to a page and is supplemented alongside with a selection from Scripture as well as suggestions for its use Biographical sketches of some of the writers are included Muslim Women Mystics Margaret Smith, 2001-07 Oorspr uitgave R bi a the life work of R bi a and other women mystics in islam Smith Margaret Oxford Oneworld 1994 WomanPrayers Mary Ford-Grabowsky, 2009-10-13 This rich blend of prayers poems and sayings by women writers and sages from around the world and throughout history offers daily inspiration and delight Included in this collection are diverse voices ranging from the early Sufi mystic Rabia and the trailblazing Mechtild of Magdeburg to contemporary poets Denise Levertov Kathleen Norris Maya Angelou Jane Hirshfield and Mary Oliver These and many other treasures of women s wisdom are gathered here from such wide ranging sources as Celtic blessings Native American petitions and Catholic Protestant Jewish Hindu and Chinese prayers An expert on spirituality with a remark able eye for the best inspirational literature Ford Grabowsky includes in this collection prayers of praise thanks petition mystical ecstasy and insight Her book explores self discovery mothering inner strength needs work gratefulness spiritual darkness mysti cal experience and love Prayers and Meditations of Thérèse of Lisieux Saint Thérèse (de Lisieux), 1992 Journey in prayer with one of Christianity s most beloved saints following such themes as the love of God love of neighbor suffering Therese s little way of sacrifice humility and difficulties in prayer Learn how Therese s spirituality of humility and sacrifice can be a prophetic witness in our modern age Mysticism Jess Hollenback, 1996-11-01 This sweeping study of mysticism by Jess Hollenback considers the writings and experiences of a broad range of traditional religious mystics including Teresa of Avila Black Elk and Gopi Krishna It also makes use of a new category of sources that more traditional scholars have almost entirely ignored namely the autobiographies and writings of contemporary clairvoyants mediums and out of body travelers This study contributes to the current debate about the contextuality of mysticism by presenting evidence that not only are the mystic s interpretations of and responses to experiences culturally and historically conditioned but historical context and cultural environment decisively shape both the perceptual and affective content of the mystic s experience as well Hollenback also explores the linkage between the mystic s practice of recollection and the onset of other unusual or supernormal manifestations such as photisms the ability to see auras telepathic sensitivity clairvoyance and out of body experiences He demonstrates that these extraordinary phenomena can actually deepen our understanding of mysticism in unexpected ways A unique feature of this book is its in depth analysis of empowerment an important phenomenon ignored by most scholars of mysticism Empowerment is a peculiar enhancement of the imagination thoughts and desires that frequently accompanies mystical states of consciousness Hollenback shows its cross cultural persistence its role in constructing the perceptual and existential environments within which the mystic dwells and its linkage to the fundamental contextuality of mystical experience

No Peace Without Prayer Timothy Wright, 2013-11-07 Abbot Timothy Wright proposes sowing a small seed from which might grow a greater respect between the world's two largest religions Christianity and Islam Indeed he believes that the seed has already been planted Christians give unique value to their revealed Scriptures as the Word of God Muslims speak of the Qur'an as God speaking to them In No Peace without Prayer Wright presents the case for developing this faith in the Word of God to establish groups of Christians and Muslims dedicated to sharing their respective Divine Word in ways that enhance the other This is not a tussle for converts but a way into greater mutual understanding under the eye of the God who communicates this Word to create a new shared memory Such is a work of prayer a prayer that could lead to greater peace The key word says Wright is partnership arising from their shared belief in the One God creator of the universe communicating with the human world and merciful to the repentant

Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India Kelly Pemberton, 2010 Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India combines historical data with years of ethnographic fieldwork to investigate women's participation in the culture of Sufi shrines in India and the manner in which this participation both complicates and sustains traditional conceptions of Islamic womanhood Kelly Pemberton's fieldwork offers an assessment of the contemporary circumstances under which a woman may be recognized as a spiritual authority or guide despite official denial of such status and an examination of the discrepancies between the commonly held belief that women cannot perform in the public setting of shrines and her own observations of women doing precisely that She demonstrates that the existence of multiple models of master and disciple relationships have opened avenues for women to be recognized as spiritual authorities in their own right Specifically Pemberton explores the work of performance recitation and ritual mediation carried out by women connected with Sufi orders through kinship and spiritual ties and she maps shifting ideas about women's involvement in public ritual events in a variety of contexts circumstances and genres of performance She also highlights the private petitioning of saints the Prophet and God performed by poor women of low social standing in Bihar Sharif These women are often perceived as being exceptionally close to God yet are compelled to operate outside the public sphere of major shrines Prayers of the Saints Woodeene Koenig-Bricker, 1996 From the author of 365 Saints comes a rich collection of prayers by saints from around the world and throughout time beautifully packaged for gift giving This delightful and diverse book includes more than 80 prayers each accompanied by a short biography of its author Prayers of the Saints is uplifting contemplative and comforting appealing to all interested in spirituality and daily meditation The Medieval Translator Jacqueline Jenkins, Olivier Bertrand, 1989
