Pre Adolescent Development:

Growth and Development of the Preadolescent Arthur Witt Blair, William Henry Burton, 2012-04-01 Recent Progress in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Masanori Hanada, 1999-02-01 In 1998 the birth rate in Japan fell to an unprecedented 1.39. Among the possible causative factors are a growing preference among women to remain unmarried, an increase in the mean age at marriage and a rise in the number of women who continue working after marriage. In contrast to the decreasing number of children in Japan or perhaps as a result, there has been an increase of such dysfunctional phenomena as violence at home and in schools, bullying, truancy and eating disorders among adolescents. These and other issues are among the topics considered by the contributors to Recent Progress in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Vol 2 edited under the auspices of the Japanese Society of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. The volume presents a broad ranging view of recent progress in the rapidly developing field of child and adolescent psychiatry, providing a valuable resource for practitioners, researchers and students of psychiatry and clinical psychology.

Children, Young People and Dark Tourism Mary Margaret Kerr, Philip R Stone, Rebecca H. Price, 2022-08-31 This book is the first of its kind to offer an innovative examination of the intersecting influences, contexts and challenges within the field of children's dark tourism. It also outlines novel conceptualizations and methods for scholarship in this overlooked field. Presently, tourism research and in dark tourism specifically, relies primarily on adult-centered theories and data collection methods. However, these approaches are inadequate for understanding and developing children's experiences and perspectives. This book seeks to inform and inspire research on children's experiences of dark tourism. Designed to appeal to students and scholars, it brings together insights from leading experts. The book focuses on five themes to explore the conceptual and historic origins of children's dark tourism, developmental contexts, child perspectives, specific contexts relevant to children's encounters and methodological approaches. This book is aimed at an international array of scholars and students with inherent research interests in the contemporary commodification of death and difficult heritage within the visitor economy. Thus, the book will provide a multi-disciplinary scope within the fields of history, heritage studies, childhood studies, psychology, education, sociology, human geography and tourism studies. The volume is primarily intended for undergraduate and postgraduate study as well as scholars and tourism professionals.
