James A. Berlin and Social-Epistemic Rhetorics Victor J. Vitanza,2021-01-16 The field of rhetoric and composition has at last received a long lost message delivered in the form of Victor J Vitanza s seminar on James A Berlin In this book that is an untext on Berlin s work and its impact on the field Vitanza acquaints us with Berlin by virtue of many Berlins in multiplicity and via the figure of an excluded third that wants to deliver to us a new message that was undelivered from Berlin to us and from Vitanza to Berlin after Berlin s untimely death in 1994 A seminar on a seminar on the teaching of writing it is teaching all the way down They met at the historical NEH seminar at Carnegie Mellon in 1978 Their friendship and rhetorical dialogues spanned only sixteen years but Vitanza continues the conversation through the seminar through this book rife with reflections and yes homework for his readers and through our reception of it It is up to us now to carry it forward As Vitanza writes I would prefer not to not think that what remains unsaid stays undelivered PRE/TEXT Victor J. Vitanza,2010-11-23 After the first issue of PRE TEXT appeared in 1981 a colleague told Victor Vitanza the creator editor and publisher of the journal how disgusted she was by it how unreadable it was how devoted to self aggrandizement and how much she enjoyed two articles in it Devoted to exploring and expanding the field of rhetoric and composition by publishing articles considered inappropriate by other journals in the field PRE TEXT has from its inception made people angry Yet it has survived and thrived This collection of essays pays tribute to the first ten years of the journal and each reprinted article is paired with a short comment by the author Also included is Victor Vitanza s retrospective history of the journal and prospectives for the future Design Discourse David Franke,Alex Reid,2010-10-06 Design Discourse Composing and Revising Programs in Professional and Technical Writing addresses the complexities of developing professional and technical writing programs The essays in the collection offer reflections on efforts to bridge two cultures what the editors characterize as the art and science of writing often by addressing explicitly the tensions between them Design Discourse offers insights into the high stakes decisions made by program designers as they seek to function at the intersection of the practical and the abstract the human and the technical Pre/Text ,1997 Books in Print ,1977 CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1993 Gail E. Hawisher,Cynthia L. Selfe,1995-06 Greatly expanded over past years this volume lists and annotates 2 054 articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions appeared in 1993 It includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter Entries in this present volume include topics with which rhetoricians and compositionists have always concerned themselves The 1993 volume is however the largest CCCCBibliography so far with many of its titles dealing with the relationship of composition and rhetoric to critical theory gender issues and cultural studies This volume also differs from earlier editions in that it contains a new section on electronic discussion groups or listservs including information on how readers may join the various groups The CCCCBibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws on a large group of experts in the field Annotations which accompany every entry in this volume describe a publication s contents and are intended to help users determine its usefulness Annotations are brief and are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about but leave readers free to judge for themselves the work s merits The Emperor's New Clothes Kathryn T. Flannery,1995 Since the Renaissance what has been considered the best style of writing has always been connected with the dominant cultural agenda of the time In this book Kathryn Flannery offers a demystifying perspective on theorists who have argued for an essential distinction between content and style and focuses on the importance of understanding written prose style as a cultural asset She addresses the development of prose criticism the evolution of English teaching the history of Francis Bacon and Richard Hooker s writing and a modern discourse on stylistics *Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ... Teaching Composition As A Social Process Bruce Mccomiskey,2000-02 Bruce McComiskey is a strong advocate of social approaches to teaching writing However he opposes composition teaching that relies on cultural theory for content because it too often prejudges the ethical character of institutions and reverts unnecessarily to product centered practices in the classroom He opposes what he calls the read this essay and do what the author did method of writing instruction read Roland Barthes s essay Toys and write a similar essay read John Fiske s essay on TV and critique a show McComiskey argues for teaching writing as situated in discourse itself in the constant flow of texts produced within social relationships and institutions He urges writing teachers not to neglect the linguistic and rhetorical levels of composing but rather to strengthen them with attention to the social contexts and ideological investments that pervade both the processes and products of writing A work with a sophisticated theory base and full of examples from McComiskey s own classrooms Teaching Composition as a Social Process will be valued by experienced and beginning composition teachers alike

Reforming College Composition Ray Wallace,Alan Jackson,Susan Lewis Wallace,2000-07-30 As colleges and universities have responded to the demand of businesses and industries for graduates who can write effectively Composition Studies has gained significance However while new theories and approaches to the teaching of writing have been proposed and implemented many composition courses do not satisfactorily educate their students This volume includes essays by writing specialists who are concerned with their own failure to improve their students writing skills These contributors examine why entering college students still write poorly and why our various attempts to improve such poor writing skills have largely failed They compare the promise of previously touted new methods paradigm shifts and curricular innovations with the reality of little change or improvement they describe what their students can and cannot do in the writing classroom even after 12 years of primary and secondary education and they address what they see as needed reforms in the whole idea of college composition especially for the first year college student A Counter-history of Composition Byron Hawk,2007 Contests the assumption that vitalism and contemporary rhetoric represent opposing disconnected poles in the writing tradition Vitalism has been historically linked to expressivism and dismissed as innate and unteachable whereas rhetoric is seen as a rational teachable method for producing argumentative texts Hawk calls for the reexamination of current pedagogies to incorporate vitalism and complexity theory and argues for their application in the environments where students write and think today Winner of the 2007 JAC W Ross Winterowd Award Honorable Mention 2007 MLA Mina P Shaughnessy Prize Who Can Afford Critical Consciousness? David Seitz,2004 Through ethnographic research with students this book contends that many composition teachers training in critical theory may lead them to misread implicit social meanings in working class minority and immigrant students writing and thinking The author examines how the local perspectives and discursive strategies of students from these backgrounds often complicate the translation of these theories to practice The author offers concrete assignments and curriculum design as well as reflections on the process of the teaching approaches and discussion of student s writing projects Coming of Age Linda K. Shamoon,2000 Part book part CD ROM Coming of Age marks a new age in curriculum development offering innovative new ideas for transforming advanced writing courses Together these essays describe and offer concrete examples of curriculum that incorporates discipline based theory and history that situates writers in public discourse and that fully prepares students for careers as writers Because Coming of Age is intended to instigate direct immediate curriculum and pedagogical action it is ideally suited to the book CD ROM format that the authors call print linked publishing The theoretical framework is presented in the solid stable medium of print Part I proposes the move from advanced composition to advanced writing and along with Part II argues for what the undergraduate writing curriculum should accomplish The generative course descriptions and program recommendations are presented in the interactive medium of a CD ROM Here you ll find Parts III and IV which explain and demonstrate how to accomplish these goals discuss ways to implement such curriculum and provide concrete suggestions from a variety of campuses that have done so The CD ROM also features a full list of course descriptions for each selection All of the electronic material can be downloaded as you compose your own curriculum and course proposals PRE/TEXT Victor J. Vitanza,1993 This book presents articles reprinted from the first ten years of the controversial journal PRE TEXT which probes many of the issues instructors in the field of rhetoric and composition face Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2008 The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher,1873 Resources in Education ,1995
