Preaching Peace in Renaissance Italy Cynthia Polecristi, 2000 Bernardino of Siena 1380 1444 was one of the major religious figures of the 15th century His charismatic preaching filled the piazze of Italian cities as thousands of listeners flocked to hear him and to participate in dramatic rituals which included collective weeping bonfires of vanities and exorcisms He was also a renowned peacemaker in the Franciscan tradition who tried to calm feuding clans and factions in the turbulent political world of the Renaissance His preaching visits would often culminate in mass reconciliation as listeners were persuaded to exchange the bacio di pace or kiss of peace

Preachers and People in the Reformations and Early Modern Period Larissa Taylor, 2021-10-01 Sermons are an invaluable source for our knowledge of religious history and sociology anthropology and the mental landscape of men and women in pre modern Europe of what they were taught and what they practiced But how did an individual process the preached message from the pulpit How exactly do written sermons duplicate the preached Word Do they at all The 11 leading scholars who have contributed to this book do not offer uniform answers or an all encompassing study of preaching in the Reformations and early modern period in Europe They do however provide new insights on Catholic Lutheran and Reformed preaching in Western and Central Europe Part One examines changes in sermon structure style and content in Christian sermons from the thematic sermon typical of the Middle Ages to the wide variety of later preaching styles Catholic preaching after Trent proves not to be monolithic and intolerant but a hybrid of forms past and present applied as needed to particular situations Lutheran homiletic theory is traced from Luther and through Melanchthon the intention of the sermon being to transform the worship service based on exegesis of Scripture In Reformed worship the expository sermon often given on a daily basis with a continuing exegesis was designed to communicate the tenets of the faith in terms that the laity could understand plain style Part Two deals with the social history of preaching in France where preachers often incited their hearers to attack human beings or holy objects or were themselves attacked in Italy where preaching became a collective and home grown product in early modern Germany where the authorities strove for uniformity of preaching practice and the preacher was seen as a moral guardian in Switzerland where leaders from Zwingli on sought to bring religious practice conduct and government in line with biblical teaching and propagated a pastoral vision of preaching in England where after the Reformation preachers became the indispensable agents of salvation but clergy and congregations were often ill prepared for the task in Scandinavia where post Reformation sermons have a clear didactic aim teaching obedience to the authorities and in the Low Countries characterized by its numerous denominations all with their own churches and particular practices in terms of preaching The volume ends with a consideration of the influence of late medieval preaching on the Reformation concluding that the diversity of emphasis on how the practice of penance was preached and received very likely affected the appeal or not of the Lutheran Reformed message in a given country

Nederman, Richard J. Utz, 2004 The medieval sermon provides the focus for the first volume of Disputatio because it often expresses the concerns of various intellectual milieux such as the university Church or court and attempts to convey those concerns to other parts of medieval society Speculum Sermonis is an anthology of essays about medieval sermons in the Christian East and West It aims to reveal precisely how sermons inform different disciplines for instance social and Church history literature musicology and how the methodologies of different disciplines inform sermons Sermons can for instance provide evidence for a reconstruction of medieval liturgy reciprocally the field of liturgiology investigates sermons as one aspect of Church performance The volume's title image of the mirror and the reference to medieval specula convey the idea of multiple reflections the sermons on culture and the disciplines on sermons Because the contributors to Speculum Sermonis come from a variety of fields the essays here collectively provide a rich historical and contemporary academic context for reading the medieval sermon In addition to essays from across the fields a number of which establish conclusions transcending disciplinary boundaries Speculum Sermonis includes an introduction defending interdisciplinary study of sermons and an authoritative bibliography covering both primary and secondary resources for medieval sermons A unique feature of the volume is the inclusion of response papers to the essays in each of the sections in the spirit of the book series title Disputatio Hildegard of Bingen and Her Gospel Homilies Beverly Mayne

Kienzie, 2009 Hildegard of Bingen 1098-1179 the only medieval woman known to have authored systematic works of exegesis composed fifty-eight little studied Expositiones euangeliorum homilies on twenty-seven Gospel passages Hildegard described her divine charge to restore the tottering faith of her era through the revelation of hidden mysteries in the Scriptures She was to continue the exegetical tradition of the Fathers and to construct moral fortifications with the words of Scripture in order to defend her sisters against the forces of evil Hildegard of Bingen and her Gospel Homilies constitutes the first in-depth study of Hildegard's Expositiones and of her exegesis preaching and use of sources It explores the Expositiones in the context of Hildegard's intellectual and cultural milieu and underscores the central role of biblical interpretation in the seer's works Furthermore this book re-examines Hildegard's self-depiction in the context of monastic education for women the magistra's exchange with her mentors and friends and her rich use of divine voice to empower her own expression This is a new exciting and erudite study on one of the most influential female mystics Pursuing Peace in the Body of Christ Eric D.

Goddard, 2002 The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 2002 Charisma and Religious Authority Katherine Ludwig Jansen, Miri Rubin, 2010 This volume of essays concentrates on the effects of preaching in late medieval and early modern Europe particularly through the concept of charisma a term introduced into the discussion of religion and politics by Max Weber Used by Weber the term indicates the power of a person to move others to action to animate and mobilize them The late medieval and early modern periods witnessed the emergence of preachers who became powerful public figures central to the mobilization of populations towards religious reform or crusades Such preachers were also enmeshed in civic life and the life of courts Super preachers like Bernardino of Siena and John of Capistrano shaped opinion on a wide range of issues the ethics of business marriage and gender relations attitudes towards minorities the poor and social responsibility as well as the role of kings and other rulers in society Preaching events were the mass media of the day and in their wake could follow pogrom lay revival crusade peace movement or reconciliation within a faction-riven city The power of these events was great and not merely confined to the Christian community This volume introduces for the first time a comparative dimension which looks at the theme of charisma and religious authority in the Jewish Christian and Muslim preaching traditions
