Preaching To America:

Contemporary African American preaching P3040 , L Susan Bond reveals the full range and diversity of African American preaching in this exploration of African American homiletical theories Portraying the many approaches that are empowering preaching in African American churches today Bond shows how different theological perspectives produce different methods of sermon preparation and delivery different strategies for selecting illustrative material and even different ways of beginning and ending sermons Her goal is not to lift up the right way to preach in the African American tradition but to show the richness and nuance contained within this powerful cultural expression

The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church, Volume 5 Hughes Oliphant Old,2004 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times In Volume 1 The Biblical Period Old begins his survey by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel He then examines the preaching of Christ and the Apostles Finally Old looks at the development and practice of Christian preaching in the second and third centuries concluding with the ministry of Origen

Resistance and the Sermon in American Literature Matthew Smalley,2024-05-30 With seemingly obsessive regularity American authors from the mid nineteenth century to the present evoke the sermon at culturally loaded moments in their works deploying the form to underscore the cultural work they imagine their novels or poetry to perform Examining this longstanding tradition of literary preaching this book draws on literary applications of design theory to provide a nuanced account of American literature s complex anxious and persistent engagement with the Protestant sermon Analyzing literary preaching as a transhistorical form that simultaneously attracts and repels authors Smalley demonstrates how major US writers Ralph Waldo Emerson Walt Whitman Nathaniel Hawthorne Rebecca Harding Davis William Faulkner Zora Neale Hurston and Toni Morrison have subverted the sermon s predominantly religious content in order to reimagine profound moments of reform in a political cultural and aesthetic mode This study elucidates new lines of literary kinship offers fresh readings of familiar works and establishes literary preaching as an undertheorized but significant tradition in American literature
