100 Top Picks for Homeschool

Curriculum Cathy Duffy, 2005 A critical volume for the homeschooling community that helps parents make informed choices regarding learning styles and curriculum

The Ministry of the Christian School Guidance Counselor James W. Deuink, 1985

The purpose of this book is to help the reader recognize the importance of pupil personnel services in the Christian school and to provide assistance to those who will initiate such a program in their particular schools Pupil personnel services present a special problem to Christian school administrators Even the smallest school needs all the services we discuss in this volume However when the budget is limited many school officials are reluctant to hire an additional staff member Recognizing the problem a small school faces in providing proper personnel we have made a number of suggestions of ways to combine administrative duties with the traditional role of the counselor We have divided the various duties of the guidance counselor into three categories administrative counseling and clerical Not all of the counselor s activities lend themselves to these divisions but we have followed this approach in the interest of all readers including those who may not be familiar with the guidance aspect of education The first three chapters provide the foundation for the remainder of the book These three chapters along with Chapter 14 are addressed to the administrator and others responsible for the overall supervision of the school Chapters 4 through 13 provide instruction for the one responsible for carrying out the counselor s duties It is our conviction that the ministry of the local Christian school can be greatly enhanced by a well planned program of pupil personnel services We trust that you will give serious consideration to the ideas presented here Preface

Curriculum Manual Cathy Duffy, 1997-11 New Perspectives on Affect and Learning Technologies Rafael A. Calvo, Sidney K. D'Mello, 2011-07-15 This monograph integrates theoretical perspectives on affect and learning with recent research in affective computing with an emphasis on building new learning technologies The new perspectives come from the intersection of several research themes Basic research on emotion cognition and motivation applied to learning environments Pedagogical and motivational strategies that are sensitive to affective and cognitive processes Multimodal Human Computer Interfaces with a focus on affect recognition and synthesis Recent advances in affect sensitive Intelligent Tutoring Systems Novel methodologies to investigate affect and learning Neuroscience research on emotions and learning The Learning Equation Pre-Algebra Acerra, 2003-08 TLE is designed for learner focused computer classroom lab based and distance learning courses Adopting institutions receive and have license to install all TLE courses on their campus computers even if they only adopt and have students purchase TLE for one section of one course The pedagogical model employs a Guided Inquiry approach whereby students construct their own understanding of concepts Instead of passively being fed information students are actively involved in tasks requiring them to discover or apply mathematical concepts The browser based course management system that accompanies TLE allows for the easy creation of algorithmically generated machine graded free response mathematics practice quizzes and tests giving instructors the power to assess student understanding of skills in a more meaningful way Because the testing and course management system is browser based it can be used on a stand alone or networked computer or any computer with Internet access giving instructors the power to access course management information such as student progress time on task and grades anytime anywhere Students working off campus can access TLE assignments using the Internet anytime Adopting institutions may use Cengage Learning servers for course management at no additional cost Handbook of Private Schools Porter Sargent Staff,1999-08 Cited in BCL3 and Sheehy The 73rd edition of this annual descriptive survey of independent education comprises free listings of 1 715 schools Each listing includes substantial statistical data as well as a descriptive paragraph which provides a historical summary of the school as well as a recounting of its most characteristic aspects A separate section comprises 300 paid illustrated announcements in which the schools themselves describe their programs and aims Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR City Schools and the American Dream Pedro Noguera,2003-01-01 Pedro Noguera argues that higher standards and more tests by themselves will not make low income urban students any smarter and the schools they attend more successful without substantial investment in the communities in which they live Drawing on extensive research performed in San Francisco Oakland Berkeley and Richmond Noguera demonstrates how school and student achievement is influenced by social forces such as demographic change poverty drug trafficking violence and social inequity Readers get a detailed glimpse into the lives of teachers and students working against the odds to succeed Noguera sends a strong message to those who would have urban schools shape up or shut down invest in the future of these students and schools and we can reach the kind of achievement and success that typify only more privileged communities Public schools are the last best hope for many poor families living in cities across the nation Noguera gives politicians policymakers and the public its own standard to achieve provide the basic economic and social support so that teachers and students can get the job done
