Precolonial Black Africa

Penny Hess

Precolonial Black Africa:

Precolonial Black Africa Cheikh Anta Diop, 1987 Diop compares the political and social systems of Europe and black Africa from antiquity to the formation of modern states Throughout his intent is not to provide a history as such but rather guidelines for historians and others who seek a scientific understanding of precolonial societies in Africa the Mediterranean and Europe and their links with the earliest known stages of human development Students and scholars of Africa and world history will be challenged by Diop's original thought controversial analysis of the similarities and striking differences between black Africa and the West Back cover

A Theory of African Constitutionalism Berihun Adugna Gebeye, 2021-07-08 A Theory of African Constitutionalism asks and seeks to answer why we need a new theoretical framework for African constitutionalism and how this could offer us better theoretical and practical tools with which to understand improve and assess African constitutionalism on its own terms By locating constitutional studies in Africa within the experiences interactions and contestations of power and governance beginning in precolonial times the book presents the development and transformation of African constitutional systems across time and place along with the attendant constitutional designs and practices ranging from the nature and operation of the African state to its vertical and horizontal government structures to its constitutional rights regime This title offers both a theoretically and comparatively rich historically and contextually informed and temporally and spatially extensive account of the nature travails and incremental successes of African constitutionalism with detailed case studies from Nigeria Ethiopia and South Africa A Theory of African Constitutionalism provides scholars policymakers governments and constitution builders in Africa and beyond with new insights for reimagining the purpose substance and scope of constitutions and constitutionalism

An Introduction to African Philosophy Sam O. Imbo, 1998-03-26 Organized topically rather than historically this book provides an excellent introduction to the subject of African Philosophy Samuel Oluoch Imbo synthesizes the ideas of key African philosophers into an accessible narrative The author focuses on five central questions What are the definitions of African philosophy Is ethno philosophy really philosophy What are the dangers of an African philosophy that claims to be unique Can African philosophy be done in foreign languages such as English and French Are there useful ways to make connections between African philosophy African American philosophy and women's studies By making cross disciplinary and transnational connections Imbo stakes out an important place for African philosophy Imbo's book is an invaluable introduction to this dynamic and growing area of study

A Roadmap for Understanding African Politics Victor Oguejiofor Okafor, 2013-09-13 This book examines the impact of post colonial leadership on political integration in Nigeria offering an in depth understanding of the historical and contemporary forces that shape Nigeria's national politics as well as African politics generally Okafor discusses how Nigeria's pre colonial and colonial political histories along with contemporary external forces like neo colonialism as well as internal social economic and political structures and developments have affected emerging post independence politics in the country The study climaxes with an Africa centered theory of political and integrative leadership and then uses it as a prism for analyzing six Nigerian post independence political leaderships encompassing Nigeria s First and Second Republics along with their military interregna The concluding chapter includes a discussion of the implications of the study for leadership and political integration in Africa in general Fifty Key Thinkers on History Marnie

Hughes-Warrington,2007-10-31 Fifty Key Thinkers on History is a superb guide to historiography through the ages The cross section of debates and thinkers covered is unique in its breadth taking in figures from ancient China Greece and Rome through the Middle Ages to contemporary Europe America Africa and Australia from Bede to Braudel Marx to Michelet Ranke to Rowbotham Foucault to Fukuyama Each clear and concise essay offers biographical information a summary and discussion of the subjects approach to history and how others have engaged with it a list of their major works and a guide to diverse resources for further study including books articles films and websites Thinking the Re-Thinking of the

World Kai Kresse,Abdoulaye Sounaye,2022-12-19 As far too many intellectual histories and theoretical contributions from the global South remain under explored this volume works towards redressing such imbalance Experienced authors from the regions concerned along different disciplinary lines and with a focus on different historical timeframes sketch out their perspectives of envisaged transformations This includes specific case studies and reflexive accounts from African South Asian and Middle Eastern contexts Taking a critical stance on the ongoing dominance of Eurocentrism in academia the authors present their contributions in relation to current decolonial challenges Hereby they consider intellectual practical and structural aspects and dimensions to mark and build their respective positions From their particular vantage points of trans disciplinary and transregional engagement they sketch out potential pathways for addressing the unfinished business of conceptual decolonization The specific individual positionalities of the contributors which are shaped by location and regional perspective as much as in disciplinary biographical linguistic religious and other terms are hereby kept in view Drawing on their significant experiences and insights gained in both the global north and global south the contributors offer original and innovative models of engagement and theorizing frames that seek to restore and critically engage with intellectual practices from particular regions and transregional contexts in Africa South Asia and the Middle East This volume builds on a lecture series held at ZMO in the winter 2019 2020 Africa and the African Diaspora ,1992 Die Fundamentalistische
