Love and Marriage in Globalizing China Wang Pan, 2014-11-13 As China globalizes the number of marriages between Chinese people and foreigners is increasing

These Chinese foreign marriages have profound implications for China's cultural identity. This book, based on extensive original research, outlines the different types of Chinese foreign marriage and divorce and the changing scale and changing patterns of such marriages and divorces and examines how such marriages and divorces are portrayed in different kinds of media. It shows how those types of Chinese foreign marriage where Chinese patriotism and Chinese values are preserved are depicted favourably, whereas other kinds of Chinese foreign marriage, especially those where Chinese women marry foreign nationals, are disapproved of. Male foreign nationals being seen as having a propensity to infidelity, deception, violence, and taking advantage of Chinese women. The book contrasts the portrayal of Chinese foreign marriage with the reality and with the depiction of Chinese marriage, where many of the same problems apply. Overall, the book sheds much light on changing social processes and on current imaginings of China's place in the world. Zibuyu, "What The Master Would Not Discuss", according to Yuan Mei (1716 - 1798): A Collection of Supernatural Stories (2 vols) Paolo Santangelo, 2013-07-04

Although the preface says that the tales in this collection of supernatural stories should not be taken seriously and just aim to dispel boredom, Zibuyu is a work with different reading levels which allows to uncover several deep trends, taboos, and fantasies of late imperial intellectual circles. Disgust, surprise, and laughter are constantly evoked by continually attracting and repulsing the reader. Yuan Mei's approach guides the reader to an adventure in the dangerous recesses of the self. It is a sort of allegoric, fantastic reflection on the relative and polyphonic essence of human beings, the multiplicity of selves from psychological perception, and a challenge to the traditional biographical and historical perspective for the unreliability of destiny. Dreams, madness, delusions, and other extreme cognitive and affective conditions, abnormal events, gods, and spirits, and the dark world of death lead to a reversal of perspective and destroy the Apollonian vision of the social-centered Confucian orthodoxy. With introduction, translation, and comments. Sentimental Education in Chinese History Paolo Santangelo, 2003-01-01

A pioneering inquiry on the role, perception, and representation of the emotional sphere in traditional Chinese culture provides a fascinating contribution on a key anthropological problem in order to understand not only pre-modern private history but also contemporary Chinese society. The importance of this work goes beyond Chinese studies.
