Thailand's New Politics Michael H. Nelson, 2001 Thailand's new politics King Prajadhipok's Institute yearbook 2001 edited by Michael H. Nelson Power Sharing in a Divided Nation Johan Saravanamuttu, 2017-03-09 This book argues that Malaysia's electoral politics have historically been premised on a hybridized model of communalism and consociationalism. Beyond this, it posits a newer idea of power sharing based on the dynamic and transformative practice of mediated communalism through six decades (1952-2016) of electoral politics. The strategy of mediating communalism is critically explored throughout the book, serving to test its saliency as a distinct approach to power sharing in a social formation which is ethnically, religiously, and regionally divided yet has remained remarkably and tenuously integrated throughout Malaysia's electoral history. The book delves into this question by narrating and theorizing the complexity of communal politics leading to the emergence of new politics which have attempted to put Malaysia on the track of further democratization. It is further implied that new politics has to work in tandem with mediated communalism to transcend the most deleterious effects of an ethnically divided society. New Politics, 1961 Revolution and Political Change Alexander J. Groth, 1996 This book is a collection of essays from the scholarly literature on the causes and characteristics of political revolutions of modernity. The editor's introductory chapter emphasizes increasing political mobilization and, above all, the acceleration of interactive changes in the fundamental context of politics: social, economic, and cultural, as a precursor to increasingly volatile world environments. Foreign Policy and the New Government Chatham House, 1979 A Preface to the Social Sciences Raymond F. Bellamy, 1956 Bradstreet's, 1888
