The Second Battle of Mag Tuired ,2025-02-04 The Second Battle of Mag Tuired recounts the legendary conflict between the Tuatha D Danann and the Fomorians central figures of the Irish Mythological Cycle This rich narrative originating from an 11th century text weaves themes of power betrayal and resilience offering a vivid portrayal of divine and human struggles It explores the fall and rise of Nuada whose kingship is tied to both physical wholeness and divine favor and the tragic jealousy that surrounds Miach s miraculous healing The tale also follows Bres a half Fomorian ruler whose oppressive reign and eventual rebellion lead to a climactic battle of mythic proportions With its intricate depictions of heroism satire and ancient lore this text is an essential source for understanding the cultural and spiritual world of early Ireland A timeless epic it illuminates the enduring power of myth in shaping identity and legacy Death, War, and Sacrifice Bruce Lincoln,1991-08-27 One of the world s leading specialists in Indo European religion and society Bruce Lincoln expresses in these essays his severe doubts about the existence of a much hypothesized prototypical Indo European religion Written over fifteen years the essays six of them previously unpublished fall into three parts Part I deals with matters Indo European in a relatively unproblematized way exploring a set of haunting images that recur in descriptions of the Otherworld from many cultures While Lincoln later rejects this methodology these chapters remain the best available source of data for the topics they address In Part II Lincoln takes the data for each essay from a single culture area and shifts from the topic of dying to that of killing Of particular interest are the chapters connecting sacrifice to physiology a master discourse of antiquity that brought the cosmos the human body and human society into an ideologically charged correlation Part III presents Lincoln s most controversial case against a hypothetical Indo European protoculture Reconsidering the work of the prominent Indo Europeanist Georges Dumzil Lincoln argues that Dumzil s writings were informed and inflected by covert political concerns characteristic of French fascism This collection is an invaluable resource for students of myth ritual ancient societies anthropology and the history of religions Bruce Lincoln is professor of humanities and religious studies at the University of Minnesota

Writing Battles Máire Ní Mhaonaigh, Rory Naismith, Elizabeth Ashman Rowe, 2020-05-14 Battles have long featured prominently in historical consciousness as moments when the balance of power was seen to have tipped or when aspects of collective identity were shaped But how have perspectives on warfare changed How similar are present day ideologies of warfare to those of the medieval period Looking back over a thousand years of British Irish and Scandinavian battles this significant collection of essays examines how different times and cultures have reacted to war considering the changing roles of religion and technology in the experience and memorialisation of conflict While fighting and killing have been deplored glorified and everything in between across the ages Writing Battles reminds us of the visceral impact left on those who come after
