

English As My Second Language

I too have a language
That other people can
Learn as a second language
And I blame my forebears
For their lakadaisical attitude
Towards the relegation
Of my language today.

I am taunted for
For every word of language
That falters in the use of my english
Faulty as english is
I am forced to rules
That utterly and woefully fail

Why should I be taunted
For a language that reneges on rules?
I am told that when making
Plurals from nouns

I should add 's' or 'ies'
But when the noun is child
It shamefully fails
For it is neither childs nor childies
It is Children!
I too have a language
Other people speak
As a second language.

Anglophone Literature in Second-Language Teacher Education Justin Quinn, Gabriela Kleckova, 2021-03-15

Anglophone Literature in Second Language Teacher Education proposes new ways that literature and more generally culture can be used to educate future teachers of English as a second language. Arguing that the way literature is used in language teacher education can be transformed, the book foregrounds transnational approaches and shows how these can be applied in literature and cultural instruction to encourage intercultural awareness in future language educators. It draws on theoretical discussions from literary and cultural studies as well as applied linguistics and is an example of how these cross-discipline conversations can take place and thus help make Second language teacher education SLTE programs more responsive to the challenges faced by future English language teachers. Written in the idiom of literary scholarship, the book uses ideas of intercultural studies that have gained widespread support at research level yet have not affected literature cultural curricula in SLTE. As the first interdisciplinary study to suggest how SLTE programs can respond with curricula, this book will be of great interest for academics, scholars and post graduate students in the fields of applied linguistics, L2 and foreign language education, teacher education and post graduate TESOL. It has universal appeal, addressing teaching faculty in any third level institution that prepares language teachers and includes literary studies in their curriculum as well as administrators in such organizations. Literature, Spoken Language and Speaking Skills in Second Language Learning Christian Jones, 2019-11-07

Seeking a Home for Poetry in a Nomadic World Silvia Paniciari, 2020-01-28 This thoroughly researched overview on one of the most absorbing literary phenomena of recent decades the trespassing of cultural and linguistic borders departs from the canonical point of view offered by the English works of the Nobel laureate Russian American poet and essayist Joseph Brodsky to approach the work of the emerging Hungarian English poet Gábor Lehoczky Through the epistemological filter offered by some guiding texts such as Bauman Hall Braidotti and many others this study allows the reader to discover the recounting of a search for an identity where the adoption of English as an artistic vehicle is only the first thread that unites the two nomadic authors Striving to locate language and identity Brodsky and Lehoczky face the limits of doing so due to the fluid and nomadic nature of language itself This suggests if not answers then new ways of expression which draw the language of our future
