Secret World Of Kids 1st Edition:

The Private Worlds of Dying Children Myra Bluebond-Langner, 2020-05-05 Winner of the Margaret Mead Award A classic moving study of terminally ill children that emphasizes their agency and shows how we can relate to dying children more honestly The death of a child writes Myra Bluebond Langner poignantly underlines the impact of social and cultural factors on the way that we die and the way that we permit others to die In a moving drama constructed from her observations of leukemic children aged three to nine in a hospital ward she shows how the children come to know they are dying how and why they attempt to conceal this knowledge from their parents and the medical staff and how these adults in turn try to conceal from the children their awareness of the child's impending death In contrast to many parents doctors nurses and social scientists who regard the children as passive recipients of adult actions Bluebond Langner emphasizes the children's role in initiating and maintaining the social order Her sensitive and stirring portrait shows the children to be willful purposeful individuals capable of creating their own worlds The result suggests better ways of relating to dying children and enriches our understanding of the ritual behavior surrounding death Communication Disabilities, 1st Ed.
