Taking Joan Miró's notorious declaration of 1927 'I want to assassinate painting as its point of departure' this richly illustrated volume is the first to focus on Miró the anti painter identifying the core practices and strategies the artist used to challenge painting between 1927 and 1937. Joan Miró Painting and Anti Painting 1927-1937 surveys the various material iconographical and rhetorical forms of Miró's attacks on painting by presenting in chronological sequence 12 distinct series of works beginning with a remarkable group of paintings on unprimed canvas and concluding with Miró's return to Realism in Still Life with Old Shoe. 1937 Acidic color grotesque disfigurement stylistic heterogeneity and the use of resistant ready made materials are among the key tactics of aggression that are explored in this extraordinary presentation of the interrelated and oppositional series of paintings collages objects and drawings Miró produced during this crucial decade of his long career. This volume integrates close scrutiny of Miró's materials and processes with historical and iconographic analysis leading to an expanded understanding of the underappreciated aggressiveness of an artist long regarded as Surrealism's most lyrical painter poet. Joan Miró was born in 1893 in Barcelona. After his first trip to Paris in 1920 and through 1931 Miró generally spent half of each year in the French capital and half in his native Catalonia returning to live in France after the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War in 1936. One of the twentieth century's greatest Modern artists Miró created a pictorial world of intense imaginative power in which visionary and cosmic elements are inextricably intertwined with the earthly and mundane. He died in 1983 in Palma de Mallorca, Spain.

Imperial Illusions Kristina Kleutghen, 2015-01-01. In the Forbidden City and other palaces around Beijing Emperor Qianlong r. 1736-1795 surrounded himself with monumental paintings of architecture gardens people and faraway places. The best artists of the imperial painting academy including a number of European missionary painters used Western perspectival illusionism to transform walls and ceilings with visually striking images that were also deeply meaningful to Qianlong. These unprecedented works not only offer new insights into late imperial China's most influential emperor but also reflect one way in which Chinese art integrated and domesticated foreign ideas. In Imperial Illusions Kristina Kleutghen examines all known surviving examples of the Qing court phenomenon of scenic illusion paintings tongjinghua which today remain inaccessible inside the Forbidden City. Produced at the height of early modern cultural exchange between China and Europe these works have received little scholarly attention. Richly illustrated Imperial Illusions offers the first comprehensive investigation of the aesthetic cultural perceptual and political importance of these illusionistic paintings essential to Qianlong's world.
