Readings in Savitri: Book seven: Cantos 4-7, Book 8: Canto 3, Book 9: Cantos 1-2, Book ten: Cantos 1-3 Madhav Pundalik Pandit, 1975 The Secrets of Eternity H. N. Brown, 1886 Being Form'd--thinking Through Blake's Milton Mark Bracher, 1985 The Biblical Presence in Shakespeare, Milton, and Blake Harold Fisch, 1999 In this penetrating study of the poetics of influence the indebtedness of Shakespeare Milton and Blake to a common source namely the Bible becomes a powerful tool for displaying three fundamentally different poetic options as well as three different ways of dealing with a conflict central to western culture In fresh and original discussions of Julius Caesar Antony and Cleopatra Hamlet and King Lear Fisch discerns what he terms the metagon not the struggle between the characters on the stage but a struggle for the control of the play between biblical and non biblical modes of imagining Milton seems more single minded in his reliance on biblical sources yet from his analysis of Paradise Lost and Samson Agonistes Fisch concludes that there are unresolved contradictions both aesthetic and theological which threaten the coherence and balance of these poems as well Blake in his turn perceived these contradictions in the work of his predecessors condemning both Shakespeare and Milton for allowing their writing to be curbed by Greek and Latin models and claiming for himself a more authentic inspiration that of the Sublime of the Bible But Blake s marvellous achievements in the sublime mode as for instance in his Illustrations to Job often reverse the direction of his biblical source replacing dialogue with monologue Harold Fisch s work combines an unrelenting attention to the minutiae of the texts with a dazzling capacity for broad insights and judgements He is equally at home in theological learning as in English literature A Concordance to the Writings of William Blake David V. Erdman, 1967
Mandala Cosmogony Dan Martin, 1994 Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1961
