Prayer and Temperament Chester P. Michael, Marie C. Norrisey, 1984 The possibility of a close connection between personality types and prayer and spirituality has been conjectured by many persons There has been much discussion on the topic but almost nothing has been published The present volume is among the first in print on the relationship between human temperament and prayer The conclusions in this book are based on a Prayer Project conducted throughout 1982 with more than four hundred participants from all over the United States and even from Canada and Australia The recommendations for the different forms of prayer appropriate for the different temperaments and personality types have been tested in a number of workshops in parish retreats and in spiritual direction of numerous persons Without claiming to be the last word that can be said on this subject of prayer and temperament the authors now offer their findings and conclusions to a wider audience It is hope that many others will find the same help to their prayer life and growth in spirituality that hundreds of other women and men have received Prayer and Temperament Monsignor Chester P. Michael, Marie Christian Norrisey, 2017-05 The present volume is among the first in print on the relationship between human temperament and prayer The conclusions in this book are based on a Prayer Project conducted throughout 1982 with more than four hundred participants from all over the United States and even from Canada and Australia Preaching at the Double Feast Michael Monshau, 2006 What is the role of preaching in the double feast churches churches whose normative liturgical worship features rites at the two tables of the Word and of the Eucharist Father Michael Monshau adds timely and critical new perspective to the issue by bringing together five significant voices from double feast churches whose presentations in effect become varied short textbooks on how to preach Prayer & Temperament Chester P.
