Perfectly Flawed Women's Bible Study Leader Guide Lisa Toney, 2025-01-07 We are all flawed but God can turn those weaknesses into strengths The Perfectly Flawed Leader Guide outlines six small group sessions complete with prayers summaries discussion questions and video viewer guides The leader guide will support group leaders of all experience levels in creating strong learning communities In Perfectly Flawed Lisa Toney shows how the apostle Peter's passion and imperfections make him one of the Bible's most loved and relatable people Even when Peter gave up and gave in and gave out Jesus was there for him Join Lisa as she follows Peter through his time with Jesus from the beginning of Jesus's ministry to the Resurrection and on through Pentecost when Peter begins to live into his call Along the way discover the raw honesty of a man who veered from staunch devotion to moments of doubt mirroring our own human struggles In the six week Bible study Perfectly Flawed we see that there is an unparalleled power Jesus gives that can only be found in our weakness We discover the strength of Jesus that is available to each of us Learn to persevere in your faith live confidently and boldly step into God's purpose for you See how Peter's story is an invitation to embrace imperfection find strength in the relentless grace of God and discover how each one of us is perfectly flawed but still deeply loved by God Other components for the Bible study include a Participant Workbook with daily readings and teaching video available on DVD

Prayer Shawl Ministries and Women's Theological Imagination Donna Bowman, 2015-10-30 Based on personal interviews Prayer Shawl Ministries and Women's Theological Imagination uncovers the theological creativity of Christian lay women quietly stitching their own sacred fabric From the origins of prayer shawl ministry in feminist and ecumenical thought the movement has grown to hundreds of groups composed mostly of women over 60 in denominations across the political and doctrinal spectrum Through participation in handcrafting ministries participants reflect on themes that sometimes complement and sometimes challenge the public stances of their communities Women in prayer shawl ministries develop commitments to broad inclusion reject the intrusion of market forces and realize their productive power Out of their traditional roles as caretakers they craft compassion into a conscious theologically rich practice Out of their historical subordination they cultivate trust in divine providence and hope for the preservation of their legacy Listening to their ideas convictions and concerns and connecting them to findings from multiple scholarly fields this book seeks to disclose the convergences and complexity of ordinary women's theological thinking and behavior

Prayer and Embodiment in Nineteenth-Century Women's Writing Elizabeth Ludlow, 2025-02-20 In the 19th century an era that saw a reconfiguration of the relationship between the self the world and the divine women writers probed the theological depths of embodied faith in new ways through poetry fiction devotional prose and life writing Elizabeth Ludlow explores how through this process they articulated what it means to pray and thereby understand one's place in a world of individual and communal bodies The eight women writers discussed Elizabeth Barrett Browning Josephine Butler George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Dora Greenwell Felicia Hemans Adelaide Procter and Christina Rossetti provide accounts of prayer that stress that the only way to experience and respond to something of the transcendent is through embracing lived experience and through a recognition of the connectedness of all bodies In detailing how these writers engage with new ways of thinking about faith desire and the material world Ludlow argues that they offer models for ethical modes of being in the world and pave the way for later theologies of embodiment Prayer Moments for Women Inspiro,2004 Created especially to give women refreshment and a source of encouragement this book is filled with real life meditations meaningful scriptures and short guided prayers to pray
